

The Horan Family of Rahan

A Genealogical Report on the Descendants of Michael Horan and Mary Minnock

by

A.L. McDevitt

Introduction

The purpose of this report is to identify the descendants of Michael Horan and Mary Minnock. While few Horans live in the original settlement locations, there are still many people from the surrounding areas of Caledon, and Simcoe County, Ontario who have Horan blood. Though heavily weighed toward information on the Albion Township Horans, (the descendants of William Horan and Honorah Shore), I'm including more on the other branches as information comes in. That is the descendants of the Horans that moved to Grey County, Ontario and from there to Michigan and Wisconsin and Montana. I also have some information on the Horans that moved to Western Canada.

This report was done using Family Tree Maker 2012. The Genealogical sites I used the most were Ancestry.ca, Family Search.com and Automatic Genealogy. While gathering information for this report I became aware of the importance of getting this family's story written down while there were still people around who had a connection with the past.

In the course of researching, I became aware of some differences in the original settlement stories. I am including these alternate versions of events in this report, though I may be personally skeptical of the validity of some of the facts presented. All families have myths. I feel the dates presented in the Land Petitions of Mary Minnock and the baptisms in the County Offaly, Ireland, Rahan Parish registers speak for themselves. Though not a professional Genealogist, I have the obligation to not mislead other researchers. I have in good conscience presented the facts as written in the original records. Anything that I considered hearsay or unconfirmed I made an effort to have it indicated as such. The Land Petitions and Settlement Stories sections are interesting reads. I've offered commentary on some of the stories presented.

I have only included the first four generations from Michael Horan in this report for privacy considerations and brevity. There are lots of Horan's I don't know about because most records save obituaries are closed after 1921 in Canada. I consider this a work in progress and I am open to anybody pointing out any errors or omissions. Its only through the cooperation and input of others that we can achieve a more complete picture of the Horan family Diaspora since leaving Ireland 191 years ago.

One major update is that I've had my DNA tested through a company called 23andMe which uncovered three William Horan descendants living in the US, two in Canada, as well a descendant of Ann Horan wife of Michael Trainor. This last one dispells the myth of the Horan family being in Canada by 1797 as there is a existing baptismal record for Ann Horan from Offaly dated 1813. Parents named Mick Horan, Mary Minnick. DNA testing also confirms a link between Kern Horan and Michael Horan.

Lastly, I dedicate this imperfect work to Mary Minnock; family matriarch, the woman who took her family into the wilds of Upper Canada, and carved out a new life from the wilderness.

Descendants of Michael Horan

Generation 1

1. MICHAEL¹ HORAN was born about 1775 in Townland of Clonshanny, Barony of Ballycowan, Civil Parish of Rahan, County of Offaly. He died in 1823 in On route to Toronto from Quebec City. He married Mary "Mary Horan" Minnock (daughter of Unknown Minnock and Unknown Mother) about 1795 in County Offaly, Ireland. She was born about 1779 in Townland of Clonshanny, County Offaly, Ireland. She died in 1859 in Sydenham Township, Grey County, Canada West, (Ontario).

Dear Mr McDevitt

Re: Horan family history research in Rahan, County Offaly

Many thanks for your recent enquiry. A preliminary search of our index of the Rahan Roman Catholic parish register has successfully located the baptismal records for two children born to Michael Horan and M.Minock in the years 1812-1813; there was also a hand written note in our index stating "Family went to Canada in 1823" - I feel confident this is likely to be your ancestors family. Unfortunately the Rahan R/C parish register only begins in 1810 which is too late for researching either Michael Horan (c.1775), Mary Minnock (c.1789) or even William's (c.1795) baptismal details as their births predates our registers. Also there are 'Gaps' (due to missing registers) in the Rahan R/C baptismal registers between the years April 1816 to Jan 1822 which rules out us being able to research further children born to Michael & Mary. Having considered your enquiry we feel that we could not recommend that you commission a 'Parish Report'. However should you wish to receive the details of the two children born to Michael and Mary in the Rahan Parish registers we will be happy to supply this for a nominal fee of 30 Euro (to cover our researchers time etc.), should you wish us to supply you with all entries listed in the Rahan baptismal registers for the surname Horan we would be happy to assist and the fee in this instance will be 60 Euro.

The two children in question were Ann Horan and Michael Horan
Ann Horan March 1812, daughter of Mick Horan and M. Menock, Parish of Rahan, St Carthach's RC Church, Page 12
Michael Horan Dec 1813, son of Michael Horan and M. Minnock, Parish of Rahan, St Carthach's RC Church, Page 30

Place of Origin of Our Horans

The Horans were from the townland of Clonshanny in the Barony of Ballycowan, Civil Parish of Rahan (496 acres), situated in the County of Offaly. Clonshanny is on R436, one kilometer east of Ballycumber, 3 kms west of Clara.

Horan Family Name

Generation 1 (con't)

The true sept of O'Horan (O hOdhrain in Irish) originated in County Galway whence they spread into County Mayo and are now fairly numerous in those Connacht counties. Another Gaelic surname, O hArrachain, which is a corruption of O Hannradhain (anglice Hanrahan) is commonly Anglicized Horan, though in Thomond (County Clare), where this minor Dalcassian sept originated, it is usually pronounced, and sometimes written, more phonetically Harhan. Other Anglicized forms recorded in County Clare are Haren and Haran. Even when written Horan it is pronounced with an internal aspirate which is more accurately represented by the form Haughran, found in the birth registers of County Offaly as a synonym of Horan and often changed to Horan. Yet another variant in this case peculiar to County Cork, is O'Hourahan or O'Horahan, a rare name but one familiar formerly to readers of The Nation on account of its regular contributor M.J. O'Horahan. This family, quite distinct from the Thomond one, belonged to County Cork and were erenaghs of Ross. The Horans now found in not inconsiderable numbers in County Cork are of this stock. The distinguished Admiral Horan of the British Navy is the son of a County Limerick man, presumably of Thomond lineage. The name has not been prominent in Irish cultural or political history. Horans of Albion Township, Peel County also Adjala and Essa Townships, Simcoe County

In the Albion Township area where Michael Horan's widow, Mary Minnock and family settled, there were other unrelated Horan families;

1. Kieran Horan moved in from Frampton Quebec where he had farmed for a few years prior to relocating to Albion Township in about 1840. Kieran lived on the 9th line of Albion. Kieran a widower himself married his brother Thomas's widow, Winnifred Daley, a sister of another Albion pioneer Hugh Daley in Quebec in 1838. These eastern Albion Township Horans were far less numerous than the others. Based on DNA evidence, Kieran was a cousin of Michael Horan. There is a DNA match between Nora McDevitt Campbell great great granddaughter of Michael Horan and Richard McNamara who is a great grandson of Kieran Horan. Michael and Kieran were apparent cousins.
2. Dennis Horan moved up from Rochester NY along with some of his in-laws the Gilmours in the 1840's. These Horans were called the "Little Horans" or "Yankee Horans".
3. Patrick Horan settled in Adjala Township, Simcoe County, the township adjacent to Albion to the north. These were the "Adjala Horans"
Patrick may connect with Dennis Horan in Albion, though I have not found a connection. Some of the Albion Horans intermarried with this other Horan family. As well, Martin Horan from Albion moved up to Adjala in the early 20th century, so while he and his descendants lived in Adjala I would not refer to them as the Adjala Horans.
4. Peter (Horahan) Horan settled in the Alliston area. This family changed their name to Horan after a generation or so in Canada. Probably from County Cork, Ireland.
5. The most numerous were "our" Horan's the descendants of Michael Horan and Mary Minnock through their son William. William Horan's family and their descendants were known as the "Big Horans" because of their stature. William stayed in Albion while all his brothers, James, John and Michael and a sister, Ann Horan wife of Michael Traynor, relocated to the "Irish Block", Sydenham Township, Grey County outside of Owen Sound Ontario.

Peter Robinson Settlers

There is a story about our Michael Horan working on the Rideau Canal. I think that people have confused this Michael Horan with ours. Here is what I've found on this other Michael Horan:

A Michael Horan emigrated from North Cork on the ship's Hebe in 1823. He settled in Ramsey township, Lanark county, (Then the Bathurst District) Ontario. He was part of the Peter Robinson settlement scheme. He does not connect to our Horan family. This Michael Horan was 30 years old in 1826 and single. Too young to be our Michael.

HORAN, Michael, 30, of Freemont, Cork. Located on west half of Lot 25, con. 1, Ramsay.

HORAN, Michael, of Mallow, Cork. Located on west half of Lot 23, con. 1, Ramsay.

The Land board assigned Michael Horan a grant of 70 acres at Lot 23 in the 1st Concession under the following conditions:

- clear half the width of the concession road bounding the property
- clear and fence 3 and 1/2 acres on said property
- build a dwelling house of at least 16' by 20 feet

By 1844 both of these properties had reverted back to the crown as no settlement duties were completed.

Michael either moved on or was a one of the casualties of working on the Canal.

Except from "The Northern Men"

Source: From MacDonell to McGuigan, The History of the Growth of the Roman Catholic Church in Upper Canada

By William Perkins Bull, K.C., LL.D. 1939

"However, it is the Horans who give northern Albion its particular character. This Catholic family

Generation 1 (con't)

retains, to an extraordinary degree, the manners, customs, and even the soft Irish speech of the land from which its forbears migrated a century and more ago.

Roughly, the Horans may be divided into the "Big" Horans, who were mostly Reformers, and the "Little" Horans, who took the Conservative side. This distinction, however, is becoming somewhat blurred by reason of intermarriage and such other causes and events as naturally occur in the process of time. There are also the "Adjala" Horans, and a few other Horan families.

The "Big" Horans, who came first, multiplied exceedingly and still are the most numerous. Their early history is one of bitter ill fortune. In 1823 Michael Horan and Mary Minnock(46) of King's county, with their "6 children (two boys and 3 girls)"(47) emigrated in a "pestilence-ridden ship".(48) Arriving at York on 9th November, 1824, Mary Horan, petitioning for land, stated that her husband died on the way up from Montreal, and that she had "friends in one of the new townships who would assist her in clearing some land". She signed
"Her Mary x Horan Mark."

"The Committee" recommended two hundred acres for "the support of her family, the grant ... [to] be confirmed to the eldest surviving son of twenty-one, in Trust for the Petitioner during life."(49) William(50) left his mother and the other children in York, and set out to do settlement duty on his land grant in Albion.(51) Michael Dwyer, with his wonted hospitality, gave the boy bed and board until he ran up a little bark-roofed log cabin of his own. Flat stones made a hearth, and a hole in the roof let the smoke out. There was a door but no window; light was furnished by cedar torches.(52) John(53) soon joined his brother, and they felled a few trees and cleared away the brushwood; then, after planting a patch of potatoes, they sent to York for their mother and sisters.(54) The whole family passed a trying winter huddled around the big fire-place; their only food was potatoes. William and John cut logs to sell for lumber and for building; stumps and shaky butts were made into firewood,(52) but the widow and her other children had no warm clothes and so could not venture out of doors till winter was over.(55)

Spring came at last, and the whole family started in to help clear more land, the elder boys still wielding axes and the other children piling and burning brush, rolling away stones and making ready to plant corn and potatoes. The Indians taught John to hunt, to shoot and to fish, so before long the hard-working widow Horan and her family had a varied bill of fare.(52)

When twenty-three, William, petitioning for his land title, signed
William X Horan

"His Mark"

In 1828 the Council granted William two hundred acres in trust for the support of his mother, and under the "particular circumstances" His Excellency remitted the fees on this grant.(49)

At last, when William had scraped together enough to buy a yoke of oxen, the tide definitely turned. A little later he bought a lumber wagon; meantime his grain was carried to the mill on the oxen's backs.(52)

The hardest years over and the family suitable settled, William turned his attention to founding a family of his own. He married a Protestant maiden, Honorah,(56) daughter of Henry Shore(57) of County Kilkenny, and niece of the Orangeman who was fined five shillings for beating up John Collins, his Catholic neighbour. William and Honorah raised fifteen children.(58)

Had some of the offspring of the prolific Horans not moved to other parts, in a generation or two the family doubtless would have peopled and owned the township. It was the resourceful William who used a boiled potato to soften his beard and facilitate his Sunday morning shave with the razor he brought from Ireland.

Surrounded by children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, keeping open house for every wayfarer, and known to the country-side as "Pappy", William Horan, good son of the Church that he was, lived to be 102. Genial, free-handed, hospitable, witty, loyal and courageous, his descendants "took after him".(52)

They were ever ready for a fight or a frolic among themselves; but it was said that "if you fight one Horan you will have to fight 'em all". At every gathering, whether dance, wake, wedding or bee, there was sure to be a collection of Horans. Their Irish humour and imagination expressed itself in tall stories, and there are more wild, weird tales of wildcats, wolves and bears afloat in Albion than in all the rest of the county. Such the Horans were and such they are to this day, a friendly, whimsical and delightful folk.

The "Little" or "Yankee" Horans are of as pure Irish Catholic stock as their kinsfolk. Denis

Generation 1 (con't)

Horan(59) of King's county did not emigrate to Albion until about 1845. He, his sister Katherine, and her husband John Gilmore,(60) came via Rochester. Denis rented Pat Grogan's(61) farm and married Martin Carroll's(62) daughter Katherine. Later, from his father-in-law, he ought fifty acres on which he lived until his death.

His descendants intermarried with the "Big" Horans, the "Adjala" Horans, and other offshoots of the clan who emigrated at different times. No stranger would go far wrong in addressing anyone he chanced to meet in the district as Mr., Mrs., or Miss Horan.

All the Horans delighted in politics. Every election was a sporting event, and any ruse to get the better of the other fellow was permissible. Denis's nephew Jimmie Gilmore, a "Little" Horan and therefore a Conservative, was a butcher in Tory Palgrave. He sold out and went to farming and droving at Lockton, the heart of local Whiggery. On election day a Grit scrutineer, determined that no Tory should vote in his subdivision, had Jimmie disqualified because of his American birth.

The tale travelled in haste to Palgrave, and the Conservatives plotted revenge. It happened that there were two "Big" Horans named Eugene. One(63) had moved to Western Canada; the other, Jimmie Gilmore's brother-in-law, was generally known as "Owney".(64) The guileful Tories persuaded a somewhat easy-going Liberal scrutineer that the Eugene Horan on the voters' list was the man who had moved to the West, and, too late, "Owney" discovered that his name had been stricken from the roll. "

Notes for Mary Minnock:

Mary Minnock was born in King's County Ireland in 1779. She was married about 1795 to Michael Horan. They had seven living children when they immigrated to Upper Canada in 1823. Her husband Michael died shortly after making landfall in Quebec; so Mary and her children made their way to York, (Toronto), where she petitioned for land. Mary was granted 200 acres in Albion Township York County. Mary set out for Albion Township to take up her claim. After encountering extreme hardship, the Horan family eventually begin to make headway in the new colony. About 1841 Mary remarried a man named Simon Scully. Mary was living with her children up in Grey County Ontario when she died in 1859. Mary was interned in St Michael's RC Cemetery, Sydenham Township, Grey County.

DNA Testing

I tested my Aunt Nora McDevitt Campbell's DNA with a company called 23andMe. She had a match with a individual who was originally from Michigan. His great grandmother was Mary Ann Minock born 1842 in Holly, Oakland, Michigan, USA. Mary's father was Daniel Minock born 1 Mar 1814 in Parish of Rahan, County Offaly, Ireland. I found his baptism on rootsireland.ie. Daniel's father was named as Michael Minnock and his mother H. Hoghan.

Other spellings of H. Hoghan's name that I found were Honor Haughran. Michael Minock and she were married in Tullamore, County Offaly in 21 Aug 1806. Haughan is pronounced Horan, (Hor-rin not Hor-ran) as in the States. So while Michael Minnock may very well have been a brother of our Mary, based on the amount of shared DNA, the connection could be Honora Haughan.

This descendant of Michael Minock mentioned earlier, shares 0.77 % DNA and three segments with Nora. This would be in the range of 4th cousins once removed.

Minnock Name

Belonging primarily to east Clare: the townland Ballyminogue in the parish of Tuamgraney marks the centre of its present location. It is to be found also on the other side of Lough Deg, where several families were resident when the 1659 "census" was taken. The Bishop of Leighlin who died in 1050, Clerichen Ó Muineóc, described in the Annals of Loch Cé as "tower of the piety of Erin", was perhaps of this sept, though Leighlin is far from Clare. In modern Irish the name is Ó Muineóg. Muineóg, is said to be a diminutive of manach, a monk, and this derivation, though not generally accepted, would seem to be corroborated by the fact that Monaghan and Mannix, both similarly derived, are recorded by Matheson as synonyms

Mary Horan

Albion July 19th 1831.

Mary eventually remarried to a man named Simon Scully who was himself a widower. Little is known about Mary's second husband other than he had a farm at the top of the 4th line of Albion Township.

According to Ester Heyes, (The Story of Albion, 1965), the Scullys were successful tobacco merchants in Toronto.

Simon died circa 1856.

Michael Horan and Mary Minnock had the following children:

2. i. JAMES² HORAN (son of Michael Horan and Mary Minnock) was born about 1801 in Kings County, Ireland. He died on 11 Mar 1885 in Sydenham Township, Grey County, Ontario, Canada. He married (1) MARY ANN FOWLER (daughter of Martin Fowler and Judith Purcell) on 04 Feb 1826 in St John the Baptist RC Church, Perth, Lanark, Ontario, (Beckwith Mission). She was born about 1809 in Canada West. She died before 1855 in Sydenham Township, Grey County, Ontario. He married (2) JULIA GRIMES about 1855 in St Patrick's RC Chapel, Sydenham Township, Grey County, Ontario. She was born about 1820 in Ireland. She died on 11 Jul 1890 in Sydenham Township, Grey County.
3. ii. WILLIAM HORAN (son of Michael Horan and Mary Minnock) was born in 1804 in Kings County, Ireland. He died on 22 May 1897 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario, Canada. He married Honorah Shore (daughter of Henry Shore and Anne Bradley) on 29 Jan 1832 in Albion Township, Gore Mission. She was born in Jan 1813 in Castlecomer, County Kilkenny, Ireland. She died on 17 May 1881 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario.

This is the last Will and testament of me James Horan of the Township of Sydenham in the County of Grey.

I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral and testamentary expenses be just paid.

It is my present intention to sell and convert unto money before my death my farm which is now under lease and any other lands I may own but in case I should die without having done so I hereby authorize and empower my executors herein named so soon as is conveniently may be after my death to sell the same and any other property I may be possessed of for the best price they can obtain for the purpose of enabling them to pay my said debts and funeral and testamentary expenses and the legacies herein after contained.

I give and bequeath to my wife Julia in case she survives me the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000) in lieu of dower.

I give and bequeath to --- of my daughter Margaret Ann and Dinia the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) to be paid by my executors unto the hands of my said daughter respectively for their own sole and separate use.

I give and bequeath to my son Michael if he is still alive and is heard of within a year of my decease the sum of one hundred dollars ($100)

I give and bequeath to sole of my granddaughter Catherine Godfrey and Mary Ann Godfrey the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) to be invested for them until they respectively come of age and then paid into their own hands for their own sole and personal use.

I also give and bequeath to the Reverend Francois X. Granottier (one of my executors or his successor in the office of officiating priest in the Roman Catholic Church in the Block the sum of two hundred dollars ($200) to purchase of assist in the purchasing of a bell for the said Church.

All the residue of my Estate both real and personal I give devise and bequeath to my said wife my said daughter Margaret Ann and Dinia and my son Thomas to be divided among the four of them equally share and share alike.

I hereby appoint Father Granottier, David Ross of the Township of Sydenham aforesaid Merchant and David Malone of the Town of Owen Sound in the said County, Gentleman executors and trustees of this my will.

Signed published by the testator James Horan this 26th day of November 1877 and is his last will and testament in presence of us etc.

James Horan

The Will was probated 25 March 1885

I think that James giving William 50 acres was his share of the estate so he was not mentioned again.- Leo McDevitt

Notes for Mary Ann Fowler:

This Mary Anne Fowler was the daughter of Martin Fowler and Judith Purcel. Martin was an apparent uncle of Thomas Fowler who settled in Albion. Thomas's daughter Mary Anne 1845-1939 married William Horan 1838-1910, son of William Horan and Honora Shore. So this Mary Anne Fowler was a first cousin once removed of the younger Mary Anne Fowler Horan.

In spite of stories of William's remarkable age, none of the census records from 1851 on have William Horan being born before 1800. On average he come in at 1804. He was apparently suffering from dementia in his final years. He supposedly tripped and punctured a lung bringing in wood.

Remarkable Age

On Lot 26, 5th Con., Albion township resides one of the oldest landmarks in Ontario, in the person of William Horan, who has attained the remarkable age of 102 years. Mr Horan was born in Kings County, Ireland, and came to this country when twenty years of age. The partner of his joys and sorrows in life died twenty years ago and they had thirteen of a family. The subject of this brief notice is living on the old homestead and nevers spends an idle day. Since he passed 100th mark he appears to grow smaller but mentally he seems to grow stronger. The Sun sincerely trusts that the sunset of the old gentleman's life, which must be close at hand, will reveal to him a bright and glorious future.

Centenarian Dead

Mr William Horan, the oldest citizen of Albion (township) died on Saturday last and was buried on the following Monday. Mr Horan was born in Kings county, Ireland in the year 1795, being 102 years old at the time of his death. The deceased came to Canada in 1847 and has been a respected resident of Albion township as far back as the oldest inhabitant can remember. He leaves a family of six daughters and eight sons; six of the latter acted as pallbearers. The funeral was very largely attended, the services being performed by the pastor of his church. Few have lived so long and seen as little trouble. He was always in fair circumstances and his family relations were of the happiest kind. Peace to his ashes!

Notes for Honorah Shore:

Source: The History of the Growth of the Roman Catholic Church in Upper Canada
By William Perkins Bull, K.C., LL.D. 1939

The hardest years over and the family suitable settled, William turned his attention to founding a family of his own. He married a Protestant maiden, Honorah,(56) daughter of Henry Shore(57) of County Kilkenny, and niece of the Orangeman who was fined five shillings for beating up John Collins, his Catholic neighbour. William and Honorah raised fifteen children.(58)

She (Honora), was a sister of Pioneer Bob Shore (Crown Deed - property still in possession of descendants) Bob Shore conveyed the couple by ox-sled to the Gore R.C. Church for their marriage. -I. G. Matson of Palgrave, 1938

Ann and her husband Michael Traynor originally farmed in the 4th Con Lot 29 of Albion Township which was about 40 miles NW of Toronto in the present day Town of Caledon. In 1846 Ann and Michael and Ann's brothers James, Michael and John left Albion for Sydenham Township, Grey County, a distance of about 70 miles (112 km). Their destination was a set aside area for Irish Roman Catholic settlers in Sydenham Township known as the Irish Block. According to "A History of St Michael's Church and the Irish Block 1852-1937" "They came in easy stages as it took 4 days for them to make the journey owing to the fact that they brought their stock with them". Michael and Ann's farm in Sydenham Township was at Lot 5 Con 27, Sydenham Township.

Only William Horan stayed in Albion where his wife Honora Shore had family. Michael died there in 1897.

Marie Horan and her husband Edward Reilly were farming just north east of Albion in Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County. She died in Brantford at the home of her daughter in 1902

Sarah Horan and her husband Thomas Higgins moved to Toronto where Thomas worked as a plasterer. Sarah died in Toronto in 1851 and was buried in St Paul's RC Cemetery.

Notes for Michael Traynor:

Emigrated to Sydenham Township, Grey County, Ontario in 1846

Settled Lot 27 Con 5. Donated land for St Michael's Church. Sydenham Township, (Irish Block) about 1852. Michael arrived in Upper Canada with his parents at age 20. The actual date of their departure from Ireland and arrival in Canada is not know, but can be fairly well pinpointed. A note carried by John Trainor from his parish priest in Ireland was dated 20 April 1825. John took his Oath of Allegiance as required by law in the Home District on the 27th of July 1825. Given a week after the April date and at least two weeks to a month for the July date to have taken place, I estimate they arrived in Canada around the 25th of June 1825. This is based on a 6 to 8 week sailing time from Ireland.

Michael first appears in Upper Canada's, Home District, in Albion Township region of present day Peel County when his father, John Trainor, applied for a Crown Grant. "On 14 Sep 1825 In Council it (in John's behalf) was recommended for 200 acres and that the adjacent 100 acs be reserved for his son until of age." Michael's, whose age is stated as 20 years, petition was actually dated on 27 Jul 1825. In U.C. Land Book M, 1824-1826 RG1 L1, volume 31 page 373 (reel C-104) both John and Michael appear as entries, John as T72 and Michael as T73. Michael's entry states, "Michael Treanor, Son of the above Petitioner, 20 years of age and Native of the County of Armagh, Ireland, praying for a grant of one hundred acres of land. Ammend on his fathers petition John Treanor." The west half of lot number 2s in the ninth concession of the township of Albion was set aside for Michael on 24 Sep 1825 by Thomas Rideout. Michael's settlement duty was performed and recorded on 25 Jun 1829.

Michael and Ann took the spelling of Traynor rather than Trainor sometime after they arrived in Sydenham Township. Although the spelling was not unfamiliar to every generation of Michael's family (different church records and court records show that several of his syblings used the "y" spelling from time to time) he appears to be the only one to have kept the "Traynor" spelling. They arrived in Sydenham Township during late 1846 or early 1847. They purchased 200 acres of land from William Proudfoot for 225 pounds sterling on 1 March 1847. It is recorded in Book J Instrument #4 as Lot 27 in Concession #5 They also bought 37 acres of Lot #27 in Con #6 from William Proudfoot for 250 pounds sterling. It is also recorded in Book J. Instrument #4.. In Book 2 instrument #4049 Michael Traynor and his wife sold 10 acres, the NE corner of the E 1/2 of lot #27 to the Roman Catholic Diocese of Hamilton for 5 shillings. This property has been handed down through the generations at least down into the 1980's. Part of it may still be in the Traynor Family.

The Horan's and the Donohue families were both early settler's in Albion Township, Peel County.

Generation 2 (con't)

When the Horans first settled in Albion, it was part of York County. In 1852 it became the United Counties of York and Peel. By 1867 the Counties were separated into Peel and York Counties. In 1974 Albion Township was absorbed into the "Town of Caledon" and Peel County became the Region of Peel.

The Horans that went to Grey County, (Owen Sound area), settled in Sydenham Township, Grey County in about 1846. This area was known as the "Irish Block", or "The Block" in some records. As of Jan 1, 2001 this area became Meaford under township amalgamation.

Michael Horan

Generation 2 (con't)

Notes for Rose Ann Donohue:

My best guess about Rose is that she was the sister of either Joseph Donahue or Bryan Donahue. These brothers plus Peter were early settlers in Albion Township, and were originally from Kings County, (Offaly), Ireland. The information on these early Albion Donahues is sketchy because there are no church records prior to 1830, nor are there any census records or any records to speak of.- Leo Mc

6. JOHN² HORAN (Michael¹) was born about 1814 in Kings County (County Offaly), Ireland. He died on 03 Dec 1891 in Algoma District, Bright Additional Township, near Thessalon, Ontario. He married (1) MARY CONNORS (daughter of John Connors and Mary Mathews) about 1846 in Grey County, Ontario. She was born in Nov 1830 in Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County, Ontario. She died on 04 Oct 1856 in Sydenham Township, Grey County, Ontario. He married (2) BARBARA MCNIVEN (daughter of Duncan McNevin and Kate McNevin) in 1857 in Grey County, Ontario. She was born in 1837 in Melancthon Township, Grey County, Ontario. She died on 08 Feb 1915 in Bright Township, Algoma District, Northren Ontario.

Notes for John Horan:

William Perkins Bull Fonds, Region of Peel Archives

Deposition made on John Horan by I.G. Matson, a William Perkins Bull researcher from Albion Township, Peel County. This was based on interviews with senior members of the Horan family conducted in 1938 and reads as follows;

John Horan moved with the others to the Irish Block(1) and married a girl of that district. Prior to that he was somewhat of a rambler, having absolutely no taste for farming, and rarely seen without his beloved gun. He was a crack marksman. Apparently he even sought to use the weapon on behalf of Mackenzie. Following the ill-fated rebellion of 1837, law officials were appointed in Bolton (Albion Township), for the purpose of depriving Mackenzie sympathizers in Albion of firearms. This movement was not so senseless as appears when one considers that Mackenzie was rumoured to be massing an army on the Niagara composed of a lower element from American city slums to attack Canada under promise of land grants for service, and from safety of borderline was urging Canadians to likewise join him in his patriot's war. Bolton officials visited the Horan homestead where John was stopping with his brother William and demanded his gun. John seized the weapon and told them he would give them the lead in it instead of the gun itself. They retreated.

Following a prolonged absence from Albion, he returned bearing a large piece of quartz. He had been to Toronto first and stated that one man to whom he showed the curious rock had offered him fifty dollars for it provided he would tell where he procured it. He seemed to have little knowledge of the quartz beyond the fixed idea that there was mineral wealth from whence it came. He wanted others to join him for a return trip and described location. Wm paid scant attention to this tale of an adventurous brother. It was alright to relate as a story in later years. The first Sudbury boom revived this story. Roughly that district coincided with the quartz location described by John Horan in a distant past. There is a strong possibility that this rambling Irish adventurer of Albion was the first man to dimly realize the mineral possibilities of what was the the far North (2).

(1) The Irish block refers to an area of Sydenham Township, Grey County that was set aside for Irish settlement. This area is just east of Owen Sound, Ontario.

(2) John moved from Grey County over to the Algoma District where he lived out his days, He died near Thessalon in 1891.

History of Dayton Post Office, Algoma District Ontario- Mrs Annie Smail

The earliest settlers had to travel up to Bright Lake to Day Mills to get mail, the post office being kept by Mr Harris Sr. The mail was brought over the trail from Thessalon to Day Mills. Then after the coming of the railroad in the early 1880's, a post office was opened at Dayton; and also a station.

The Station agent was Louis Estignea*(1), who took a bride while residing at Dayton. She was the daughter of Mr and Mrs John Horan, who were among the very early settlers. They had moved up from a farming community near Owen Sound and had brought with them horses and a number of cattle.

They first settled near the lake at what is now know as Horan's Bay*(2), but realising the poor quality of soil they moved up to the farm in the Bright Additional (township) now occupied by James Armstrong. The elder son Tom taking up eighty acres north of them which he had for many years laater sold to the late Magnius Tait who in turn sold it to C.E. Kirby.

Mr Silvester Horan took up the one hundred and sixty acres of land west of the late Thomas Sproule farm. This he sold later to the late George Cameron and is now owned by his son Robert.

*(1) Mary Helen Horan was married to Louis Ostigny. They had two children who died young. Mary Helen divorced Louis in Escanaba Michigan in 1898, on the grounds of failure to support and extreme cruelty. She remarried John Henry Lunzman of Ensign Michigan in 1908.

*(2) Horan's Bay or Horans landing is to the immediate right of the Thessalon First Nations reserve.

From SS No 3 Bright and Bright Additional townships-W.F. Sproule

It was very difficult to get supplies in those days, they had to bring them from Thessalon in a row boat to Horne's Landing. Mr Horne had a Horse and a jumper, he would bring their supplies through a woods trail to the creek, then they would roll the barrels of flour on pine logs over the creek. Sometimes they would walk to Thessalon and carry 40 lbs home through the woods.

Briefs on the Dayton East Area
By Mrs Percy Gardener

The townships were surveyed in 1879. The name "Bright" after a great British statesman, John Bright; Day was in honour of the first land agent in this part of Algoma, John Day, who farmed at that time at Rydal Bank.

Three years latter (1882), the land was put on the market at 20 cents a acre.

The first road was built through Bright Township in 1884. Until then the only means of transportation was by foot or by oxen. Supplies were mostly brought down Lake Huron from Thessalon to Horans Landing, or by way of Mud creek to Blind River. It was slow strenuous work, and many stories were told of the hazardous trips.

Letter from Rita Clements reference John Horan;
Leo,

I think I am interested in the same family. My great-grandfather's sister was married to a John Horan. Her name was Mary Connor (O'Connor). They lived in Owen Sound. She died on May 4, 1856. Among my notes I have the following:

Children of John & Mary:

Michael b. 1846
John b. 1848 or 1850
Ann Mary b. 1854

Children of John & Barbara (a Scotch lady)

Catherine b. 1859
William b. 1860
Margaret b. 1862
J. Eliza b. 1863
Bridget b. 1865
Sylvester b. 1869
Lucinda b 1871

I cannot verify this information though. I really do not know anything else about Mary Connor. The Family History Library of the Mormon church has a microfilm #0982215, HISTORY OF SYDENHAM TOWNSHIP that I ordered and used. On that film the Directory of property owners in 1865 lists a John Horan Con.4 Lot 26 another John Con 3 Lot 27. Other Horans listed are Thomas, William, James, Michael. On microfiche # 6104600 ST. MICHAEL'S ROMAN CATHOLIC

Generation 2 (con't)

CEMETERY, CON 5, LOT 27, SYDENHAM Township. I found quite a few Horans listed. One states "Horan, James d 11 Mar 1885 aged 84 yrs, native of King County Ireland; James d 16 Jul 1860 aged 3 yrs 7 mon; Sarah d 18Sep 1866 aged 7 yrs; Julia Grimes w of James d 18 Jul 1890 aged 70 yrs; Adelia Horan w of Michael Slattery d 2 Oct 1892 ages 32 yrs 4 mon."

Hope this helps you. I am researching John Connors and his family. I know his children were the above Mary; my great-grandfather, Thomas; Mary Margaret m. Henry Calhoun; John; Elisabeth m Richard Leahy; Charles m Elizabeth McKalandon; and Agnes. If you have seen anything on these people I sure would appreciate it.

Thanks.

Deaths

In these modern days in any rural community, it is hard to realize how terribly dependant neighbours were upon one another in the closing years of the last century. Illness came to a home and women like Mrs Peter Cameron, Mrs McDowell, Mrs John Horne and many others gathered up a few simple remedies and comforts and went at once to the stricken household.

John Horan and Barbara McNiven had the following children:

For a long time after the rest of the land was settled George Dodds owned the Jimmie Kinsley lot. Half of this was sold to Bill Horne, (actually Horan-Leo McD), Of the old timers we hear the Horne brothers, Bill and Sylvester. They were bachelors and welcome wherever they went for their gift of humor. When we came to this farm in 1914 the brothers were getting ready to move to Saskatchewan and Bill told us about a poultry venture. They wanted to take some pullets out with them in the stock car and some one in Blind River gave him two settings of white Wyandotte eggs, 16 to the setting and Bill went on to say 29 eggs hatched and 27 were cockerels. We asked which of the two men was the cook. Both denied the job but finally Bill said: "Well I was the cook and we got a dog from Hank Rodgers and he just stayed three days so I quit".

8. MARIE² HORAN (Michael¹) was born on 17 Jun 1816 in Clonshanny, Barony of Ballycowan, County of Offaly. She died on 13 Jan 1902 in Brantford, Ontario. She married Edward Reilly (son of Ancestor O'Reilly) on 03 Sep 1838 in St James RC Church, Colgan, Ontario. He was born about 1800 in Ireland. He died in 1879 in Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County, Ontario.

Notes for Marie Horan:

Marie was the daughter of Michael Horan 1775- 1823 and Mary Minnock 1779-1859. Mary and her family immigrated about 1823 from Kings County, Ireland. Mary Minnock settled in Albion Township, Peel County, (then part of York County). Michael died en route to Toronto from Quebec.

Marie married Edward (O')Reilly of Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County in 1838, probably in St Margaret's of Scotland at Tuam in Tecumseth Township, this being very close to Mary Minnock's land in north east Albion Township, Peel County. Marie and Edward had 9 known children; and Marie was widowed before 1880, after which she went to live with her daughter Bridget, wife of John Treacy.

Marie Reilly shows up in the 1881 Census of Tecumseth Township living with John Treacy and her daughter Bridget. In the 1901 census, she is still living with this family in Brantford Ontario. Marie's obituary appears in the Brantford Expositor in 1902; stating that she had died of a stroke. In the 1901 census, Maria says that she was born in Ireland 17 June 1816 and that she emigrated to Canada in 1814. This should read 1824. Note that in 1901 she was 85 years old.

Maria was living with her daughter Bridget Treacy in 1881 Adjala census.

Obituary from Great Falls Tribune

Generation 3 (con't)

W.F. Horan passed away yesterday at his son's ranch, on Willow Creek. Undertaker McAllister was notified by telephone last evening of the death, at his son's ranch on Willow Creek, near Belt, of W.F. Horan, age 74 years. The deceased has several children and other relatives in this vicinity, one of his sons, Mike, being an employee of P.J. Regan in this city. The body will be brought to the city this afternoon and will be at McAllister's until 9:15 A.M. tomorrow, when it will be taken to St. Ann's Church where services will be held at 9:30. Interment will be made in Calvary Cemetery.

Hi Leo, sorry to be so late in thanking you for the Horan Family History. Great work on the research and all the added information. I'm very impressed, can't wait to show it to my genealogy instructor next week..

I've been working on the McClarty family you requested and will send it to you when I finish. Haven't done much on the Mc Fadden side yet.

In your last E-mail You requested how I fit into the family so here goes!

William Francis Horan b.1827 married Julia Donohue in 1851 are my Gt. Grandparents. their children are:

1. James T. Horan- b. Jan. 22, 1852
2. Roseann Horan - b. Jan 2, 1853
3. John Henry Horan - b. Sept. 25, 1855
4. Mary Horan - b. July 9, 1857
5. William Frank Horan (Frank) -b. Jan 19, 1959
6. Joseph Horan - b. Dec. 19,1960
7. John Martin Horan (Martin) - b. Sept 5, 1862
8. Agnes Horan - b. May 22, 1867
9. Michael Patrick Horan - b. Jan 5, 1969 - my Grandfather

There is some confusion over his birthdate... all these above b. dates came from Julia's Bible, according to Sister Mathias (dau. of James T.Horan). Sister Mathias states in a letter to Alice Trodick (dau. of John Martin Horan) " I copied this from Grandma's bible that Uncle Frank had saved after grandma died". Yet all census and family knowledge and death certificate state he is born in 1873 ! Then when I receive your research and it shows Michael Patrick b. 1873. and Baptised Jan. 25 th at St. Patrick's in Sydenham is more proof that the later date is the right one, but why the 1869 date in the bible? I asked my instructor what she thought and her view was that Julia and William had another son in 1869 and he died at an early age so they named the next child after him !! What are your thoughts on this? Do you have another idea? Would love to hear But why wouldn't Julia have written the 2nd Michael P. in the bible?

Michael Patrick married Catherine Jane McFadden in 1905 in Immaculate Conception Catholic church in Fort Benton, Chouteau Co., Montana . Catherine was b. Feb. 29, 1876 in Sydenham Twp. Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada. They met in Sydenham and after Mike immigrated to Montana, and got settled he sent for her. She traveled by train to Fort Benton where they were married and then proceeded on to Great Falls.

Generation 3 (con't)

Their children are:

1. Julia Catherine Horan b, April 7, 1906 in Great Falls, Cascade Co., Montana, Baptised at St. Anns Catholic Church in Great Falls, Cascade Co., Montana. Married Floyd Hawver Raymer b. Nov. 21, 1906 in Seattle, King Co., Washington. Married by a Justice of the Peace in Duwamish, King Co. Washington on Aug. 2, 1930 . One child - Jo Ann. Julia, named after her Grandmother is my Mother. Julia died Nov 13, 1987 in Seattle, King Co., and is buried in Acacia Cemetery, Seattle, King Co., Washington

2. John Michael Horan b. 1907 in Great Falls Cascade Co., Montana, d.1911 at 4 years of age in Montana (family story says he died on the train from Great Falls to Seattle Where his parents Mike and Catherine had gone to find a home and Grandmother Catherine (Mc Clarty) Mc Fadden was to take the 2 children on the train to meet them in Seattle. Don't know what happened or anything beyond that.

3. Mary Angela Horan b. Aug. 18 , 1910 in Seattle, King Co., Washington. Married Henry Mylle b. Nov 6, 1900. They had three children, Barbara, Robert, and Angela. Mary Angela (always called (Angel) d. Oct. 19,1994 and is buried in Holyrood Catholic Cemetary in Seattle King Co., Washington.

4. Gertrude Imelda Horan b. July 7, 1914 in Seattle, King Co., Washington married Kenneth Beaudoin in Seattle, King Co., Washington. They had 2 children Yvonne and Michael. Marriage ended in divorce, and she married #2 Virgil Stone. Gertie died in 1978 in Nashville, Tennessee where she is buried.

With the death of John Michael Horan it was the end of the line for this branch of the Horan family. Hope you can make sense of this

Have never been in touch with Alberta Horan, do you have her E-mail ? Will send info on McClarty's when I finish. Jo Ann

Notes for Julia Donohue:

From Alberta Horan, Great Falls Montana- Julia Donohue and her sister were about 12 and 13 years old when they lost their parents in a storm and were shipwrecked on the way to Canada from Ireland.

A telegram was received by Chief Guerin, announcing that Joseph Horan was drowned in the Missouri River near Culbertson. Mr Horan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Horan, reside at 1000 Fifth Avenue North. They have not recieved full particulars of their son's death, but it is learned that he was driving a band of horses across the river, which was high and filled with breaking ice. In some manner Mr. Horan became entangled in the floating ice and sank. Mr Horan was about 35 years old.

This story is a transcript of an interview conducted with various senior members of the Horan family conducted circa 1934 for William Perkins Bull by I.G. Matson of Albion Township.

Interview with Michael Horan Lot 32 Con 4 Albion Township 1.

When Michael Horan's father started out for himself, (he was Michael Sr., son of William Horan and Honorah Shore) his father William the first gave him 50 acres of land at lot 4 con 32.

Michael Sr. was in very hard straits and had to buy his first axe on time to clear his first fifty acres.

At that time, when the elections were on, the conservative representative came along and offered him $100.00 for his harrow, if he would go down and vote conservative (Tory). (Not that the representative wanted the harrow, but it was just to get his vote). But Michael who was a stanch liberal replied " You get out on the road there, quick, and keep going, or I'll kick you". That's how strong a liberal He was.

Notes for Anne Daly:

Ann was the daughter of Hugh Daley and Bridet Doyle.

Ann Daly's aunt Winnifred Daley was the wife of first Thomas Horan then after his death; his brother Kieran Horan. Winnifred and Kieran made their way to Albion Township from Frampton, Quebec about the same time as her father Hugh Daly (1840).

Found Dead

Bolton Enterprise: Dennis Horan of Adjala was married on Tuesday to Margaret Jane, daughter of William Horan jr of Lockton. Henry Horan, son of Michael Horan who lives at lot 32, 4th con., Albion was one of the guests at his cousin's wedding, and early Wednesday morning he drove a young lady to her home at Cedarville. He then started the return journey. About 9 o'clock he was found sitting in his buggy on the road between Ballycroy and Cedarville by some parties who were astonished to find that he was dead. His body was taken to the residence of Patrick Horan, hard by, but the medical men who were summoned decided that an inquest was unnecessary. It is thought that death must have been caused by heart failure or some kindred disease. Deceased was in his 24 year, a young man of steady habits and greatly respected. It was a sad ending to the otherwise happy wedding festivities.

(Cedarville is in Adjala Township, between Athlone and Ballycroy, intersection of 5 sideroad and Highway 50. LeoMcD)

Shelburne Economist, Date: 13 Jul 1905, Page: 5, Column: 2, Type: Article

Shelburne Economist - July 13, 1905, He is a Veteran:

Mr. Henry Horan, of Lockton, was among the visitors to Orangeville on Friday. Mr. H., though three score and ten, is a native of Albion, and enjoys the distinction of being the second person born in that township. His father was a native of King's Co., Ireland, and came to Albion in 1822, when Geo. IV, was on the throne of England, and just one year after the death of the first Napoleon. The greater part of Ontario, then Upper Canada, was at that time a howling wilderness. - Orangeville

In regards to Cardwell County In Ontario Canada, Census Districts were voting districts, not Counties. Though the Census District may have the same name as a County, it may not include the same townships. Cardwell was in existence as a voting district from 1871-1901 and included townships from the following Counties:

Caledon: nominally part of Peel County
 Albion: part of Peel County
 Mono: part of Simcoe till 1881 then part of Dufferin County
 Adjala: part of Simcoe County

Notes for Mary Ann Fowler:
 Daughter of Thomas Fowler and Margaret Connor

Mary Anne Fowler's mother, Margaret Connor came to Canada with her son, John O'Donnell and Her Parents. They settled south of Wildfield in Toronto Gore Township. There are some details on this family in George S. Tavender's "From this year hence", a History of the Toronto Gore. When she married Thomas Fowler she is listed as Margaret McDonal, (in error), and a widow. This family was also known as O'Connor. This John O'Donnell son of Margaret Conner Fowler married Mary Horan, a daughter of William Horan and Honora Shore. So in short, John O'Donnell who married Mary Horan was a half brother of Mary Anne Fowler. (See John O'Donnell section for more details on John.)

There was another Mary Anne Fowler 1809-1855, the daughter of Martin Fowler. This Mary Anne was the first wife of James Horan 1801-1885, uncle of William Horan 1838-1910. Martin Fowler was an apparent uncle of Thomas Fowler who settled in Albion. Thomas's daughter Mary Anne 1845-1939 married William Horan 1838-1910, son of William Horan and Honora Shore. This would make Mary Anne Fowler the elder a first cousin once removed of the younger Mary Anne. The other Mary Anne Fowler, (Mrs James Horan) was buried in St Michael's RC Cemetery in Sydenham Township, Grey County, (The Irish Block).

William Horan and Mary Ann Fowler had the following children:

71. i. JOHN FRANCIS⁴ HORAN (son of William Horan and Mary Ann Fowler) was born on 20 Nov 1865 in Albion Township, United Counties of York and Peel. He died on 23 Jan 1945 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario. The O'Donnell Family

Presumption plays its part in the evaluation of historical data. For example prior to 1859, John O'Donnell was in possession of the following parcels of land: Lot 11, Conc. 8, Lot 11 east 9, Lot 14, Conc. 11, Toronto Gore Township. Believed to have emigrated to Canada alone, he lived with his uncle, John O'Connor on Lot 8, Conc. 10. O'Connor, well established on his farm, is reputed to have owned these lots, and then sold out to Abel Robinson. It is believed that O'Donnell reached some financial agreement with his uncle for possession of the above properties.

In 1858 O'Donnell married Mary Horan and moved on to Lot 14, Conc. 10. Here he built his log home. For some unknown reason the home developed a spectral atmosphere, at least according to old timers, it was haunted. 'No actual apparitions were seen, but there was a feeling in the air, and the local folk avoided this house after dark. The building of a new brick home in later years did nothing to dispel the feeling of wraiths moving about. An outside entrance to the cellar had been added to the new home. Composed of wood, it would resound with squeaks and squeals when trod upon by the sheep. which were allowed to roam at large. This was sufficient to create imaginary- hobgoblins; running about in the minds of the superstitious Irish.

Eleven children were born to the O'Donnells. In 1891 the eldest son, Jeremiah, succeeded to the farm, and then married Mary Ann Nash of Castlemore. The second and third sons. John and

Generation 3 (con't)

William, moved to Kansas before the turn of the century and their descendants still reside there. Lot 11. Conc. 8 was sold to Patrick Fanning. Another son. James, settled upon Lot 11. Conc. 9. Joseph succeeded to the home farm and his son Edward carried on the O'Donnell name in the Gore. Today Edward and Rose O'Donnell and their two children, Kathryn and Peter. live on Seventeen Sideroad. Ed is busy most evenings with the work of the Marysfield Credit Union.

Information from Lyle O'Donnell:

Edward Pendergast is one of our common relatives who still lives near the original territory where John and his family settled. Edwards mother was Margaret O'Donnell (a sister of Jeremiah, William and John Senior). In a recent visit with him, he added another chapter to the story. Apparently John had a half-sister. Records show that his mother (Margaret) was remarried to Thomas Fowler February 6, 1844 and had a daughter named Mary Ann born May 28, 1845. When I was in Ireland last August, I went to visit the Limerick archives. I paid them to do a search of the John O'Donnell's who were born in 1836 in the County of Limerick to a mother with the maiden name of O'Connor. They found two records. One of them can be eliminated because that John O'Donnell had younger siblings. It is unlikely his mother would have come to Canada without them. The second John was an illegitimate child born to Margaret O'Connor. The father was neither James nor Michael. His name was Jeremiah. Since that name shows up in the children that John Senior had, there is a possibility that he was the father of our line.

John O'Donnell and Mary Horan had the following children:

78. i. JEREMIAH⁴ O'DONNELL (son of John O'Donnell and Mary Horan) was born on 25 Oct 1859 in Toronto Gore Township, Peel County, Ontario. He died on 21 Jun 1938 in Clay Center, Kansas. Were baptised Sarah and Honora born on the 31 May preceding, both of the legitimate marriage of William Horen and Honora Shore.

Sponsors for Sarah were Michael Mullen and Margaret Carey. For Honora, John Horen and Bridget Shore. Eugene O'Reilly Parish Priest

Sarah and Honora Horan were twins. Sarah also had twins; Michael and William. Honora had twin grandchildren, Daniel and Francis Minnock
This seems to be a trait they inherited from the Horans.

Sarah had her heel removed when she was a teen as a break in her heel bone became infected. Gramma McDevitt said she always knelt on a chair to wash dishes; or other household chores that required prolonged standing.

This bone was kept by the Medical College in Toronto till Sarah's death when it was buried with her.

Notes for Richard Doherty:

Richard was the son of Michael Doherty and Judith Walsh

Richard sent back to Ireland for his Baptismal certificate and recieved the following information:

Parish of Tullaherin, Diocese of Ossory

It appears from the Register of Baptisms of the above Parish that Richard Doherty son of Michael Doherty and Judith Walsh, Dungarvin was born on the (blank) day of (blank) and baptised according to the rite of the Catholic Church on the 9th day of May 1852 by the Rev John Phelan P.P. the sponsors being James Durgan and Catherine Kelly. INFORMATION FROM OLLIE WATSON

St. John's R.C. Parish
The Doherty Family

Rarely at this late date to we encounter one whose age entitles rank of Albion pioneer with old country birth. Yet Richard Doherty in his eighty-sixth year can claim the dual distinction. His parents were Michael Doherty and Hanora Walsh.

In youth Michael Doherty joined the Irish constabulary and was sent to their training school at Pigeon House, Dublin. Doherty was originally of Donegal but after police training was sent on duty to Dungarvan, Kilkenny. His last place of duty was Dalatore, Kildare, near the Currah, where the two noted pugilists of early repute, Donnelly (Irish) & Cowper (Eng.) had fought their famous fight to the finish for championship honors-an epic in pugilistic encounter whose fame was later set to verse & recited by the oldest Irish who settled in Albion.

Michael Doherty's brother James had migrated to Canada several years previous & with wife had established himself on w. half Lot 30 Con. 4 (near corner of 4th line & Townline). Five years after his death Michael Doherty with wife & two sons, Richard aged 11 & John aged 5, decided on migration to Canada, also. Unlike many more they had a definite destination--the home of Jim Doherty's widow who had been in correspondence with them. This couple had been childless. The little emigrant boy Richard--now numbered amongst Albion's oldest citizens--recalls their setting forth to Canada quite clearly. They went to Dublin with the intention of departing from that point but shipping facilities from that point were inadequate for the demands of the time & the emigrant who had assembled there beyond accommodation means were sent to Londonderry. Here they were forced to wait a week.

Amongst the scenes of Londonderry which stamped themselves indelibly on little Richard's mind was the famous Londonderry wall, the monstrous fish market, & the hotel where they stayed. It was known as Shepherd's Hotel & boasted a bowling alley & shooting gallery.

At the expiration of a week, some five hundred emigrants, amongst them the Doherty family, were assembled for departure by steamer. Note that this pioneer family set out after sail had given place to steam. This steamer, the Belgium, was evidently a monster for its day & decidedly modern in accommodation (for the times). It could not be brought to dock & the water was not sufficiently deep for a vessel of its draught. It could only get as close as Merville on the Inishowen Penn. The emigrants were taken in consignments by a small boat & transferred from the small vessel to the ocean vessel. The sailors assisted passengers up into the ship. The food on board was wholesome & plentiful. Earlier on sailing vessels have invariably mentioned food on shipboard as being mostly of the hardtack & salt meat variety with a decided tendency to apportionment of the same. Note also the number taken on board yet with quarters not unduly crowded. Note also the reduction in time. The Belgium docked on the St. Lawrence within two weeks of departure from Ireland--all a tremendous improvement in ocean transportation.

Only from Richard Doherty have I been able to procure a description of the emigrant steamer of the early sixties. At time of crossing he was happily of the age when his observation powers were of the keenest, mind capable of grasping facts & memory retentive.

Emigrant quarters were not divided into compartments to insure family privacy not yet sex segregation. The one huge compartment to which the Doherty family was assigned was similar in floor space to that of an ordinary old Albion barn (to quote his comparison) which may be taken to mean something over sixty feet by perhaps thirty-odd feet. Considerably over one hundred, he estimates, were quartered in that space--possibly nearer two than one hundred, counting children.

Along the walls was a double tier of bunks (meaning two deep) & between them, ranging from end to end of the central floor space were the plain tables upon which meals were served, with a few chairs & several benches strung promiscuously along the table sides.

Each bunk was of sufficient length to accommodate the tallest man in a reclining position, & accommodated two sleepers (more if children). These bunks were not curtained to their front to screen dormitory & males the other. An emigrant family preferred adjacent bunks for home companionship regardless of sex.

By night the light was by candles. Richard Doherty was a young Albion man before the advent of coal oil to his home.

By day, light penetrated the gloomy ship depths through the hatchway--which was also ventilation system & means of access to deck. In roughish weather a hurtling wave against the ship's side would break across deck & spray a portion down the hatchway. This playful proclivity of ocean waves was also otherwise annoying for twice a day the emigrants were ordered on deck for exercise & fresh air & to permit of cleaning their quarters. No steps led up the hatchway. It was still a ladder system & the playful waves made progress up the ladder an unpleasant ascent. The more sturdy emigrants assisted the aged, the young & the females. It appears that the emigrants disliked this ascension worse than the subsequent spray of drenching received from rain or wave on their semi-daily deck parade.

Apart from this wholesale exodus from below deck to above deck twice a day, there was at other times the intermittent ascents & descents occasioned by the latrines being on deck. A trip up the ladder & along the slippery deck in pitch darkness of night was decidedly unpleasant.

Obituary from the Bolton Enterprise

Richard Doherty

The death occurred last Monday of one of Albion's oldest and most highly regarded citizens in the person of Richard Doherty Sr at the home of his son Richard. Fourth Line, Albion.

Born in Kilkenny, Ireland, on May 1, 1852 Richard Doherty came to Canada with his parents and brother at the age of 11 years. They sailed from Derry to Quebec in one of the first steamships-making the trip across the ocean in thirteen days. After leaving Quebec they came on to Toronto and then to Albion Township where Mr Doherty has lived for the past 77 years, with the exception of a six months visit to the United States.

In 1876 he married Sarah Horan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Horan, member of one of the pioneer families of Albion. His wife predeceased him nearly 27 years ago.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Frank McDevitt, Albion, and five sons-James in Detroit, Richard Thomas and Fred of Albion, and William of Adjala-28 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. The funeral was held on Thursday morning from the home of his daughter, Mrs Frank McDevitt, with a Requiem High Mass and interment at St John's Roman Catholic Church, Albion. Mass was conducted by Rev M.J. Barrack.

Pall Bearers were six grandsons-Norman, Harold, John and Edward Doherty, Francis and Doherty McDevitt.

Generation 3 (con't)

Richard Doherty and Sarah Horan had the following children:

90. i. WILLIAM VINCENT⁴ DOHERTY (son of Richard Doherty and Sarah Horan) was born on 03 Mar 1877 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario. He died in 1946 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario. He married Ellen "Neille Ellen McNamara" McNamara (daughter of Thomas McNamara and Prudence Bible) on 29 Jan 1908 in St John the Evangelist RC Albion Township Peel County. She was born about 1881 in Adjala Township, Simcoe County. She died on 14 Feb 1920 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario.
- ii. MICHAEL JOSEPH DOHERTY (son of Richard Doherty and Sarah Horan) was born on 03 Mar 1877 in Albion Township, Peel County. He died on 25 Feb 1882 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario.

Notes for Michael Joseph Doherty:

Honora Doherty McDevitt (Gramma) 1883-1967 said that her brother Michael died in the wagon on the way to the Doctor's in Caledon East. They were taking him to see the Doctor because they thought his Appendicitis had burst. When they got to Albion Station (about 2/3 of the way to Caledon East), They tried to wake him to point out a train that was passing, but he was already gone.

Though his cause of death in the medical records was fever (The Dolan children, ages 4, 6 & 2, died of Scarlet Fever earlier that same month. They lived 2 lots over, lot 28, conc. 5.)

A number of children died in Albion that winter from Scarlet Fever.

- iii. JOHN THOMAS DOHERTY (son of Richard Doherty and Sarah Horan) was born on 16 Jan 1879 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario. He died in 1962 in Orangeville Hospital.

Notes for John Thomas Doherty:

Tom Doherty, son of Richard Doherty and Sarah Horan

Tom Doherty, of the old Doherty family, early settlers on the Fifth Line of Albion, says that when he attended the Finnerty School, SS. No. 12, on the Thirty Side Road, in winter when the young folks were not needed on the farms, fifty pupils filled the one classroom, most of them descendants of that redoubtable pioneer William Horan, who fathered fifteen children and saw most of them settled on farms in Albion. The all-important qualification for a teacher in that school, said the chuckling Tom Doherty, was that he be big enough and tough enough to quell the fighting Horans into submission. The most successful teachers were the ones who cut a blue beech cudgel as thick as your wrist with big welts on it, and applied it frequently, he remembered. One misdemeanor for which the cudgel was "applied frequently" to the older boys was, we are told, "chewing tobacco and spitting in the inkwell."

From "Across the Years", Chauvin, Ribstone and Districts History
Frank Moran came from Loretta near Alliston Ontario to Edgerton Alberta on January 27 1910, with a car load of horses for Bill Minick

From "Winds of Change", Edgerton and District 1975
The Minicks, written by Murial Bazley and Tim Bazley

Bill Minick and his son Romney, came to Edgerton in 1906 from Eastern Ontario. The homestead was on the 1/4 section of the section where the J. Christensens now live. He was one person who had the oil rights on his land.
Right after the railway came to Edgerton, he had fine Clyde horses shipped from Ontario. His Clydes were his pride and joy.
He was an old man, constantly chewing tobacco which dribbled down on his long whiskers which were mostly the color of the dribbles.
Bill Minick and Tom Bazley were always good friends and often worked together. Bill Minick was a good farmer and a good horseman.
In the summer of 1917 he had a sale, rented his land to Tom Bazley, then went east to his wife and Mary Ann, his daughter.
In 1920 he returned to his farm, bringing in more good Clyde horses.
Then about 1925 he had another sale and returned to Ontario, living there until his death.
Old Bill and Romney often quarrelled violently, then Romney would go to Bazleys and stay a few days until tempers were cooled.
Later Romney went to live with a Mrs. Tretbe, which angered Old Bill greatly. This triggered Old Bill's last sale.
Bill Minick was often seen with his team and buggy homeward bound, horses galloping, lines slack.
But somehow he always arrived home safely.
Some tales Tim remembers about Bill Minick:
One day Tom Bazley was cutting grain for Bill Minick with the binder. Tim was stooking. About 3:00 o'clock Old Bill said, "Tim, we are going to Wainwright."
So away they went to get whiskey. On the way home, Bill said, "Stop Tim. Look up, look down, look ahead, look back, and if ye see no one, we'll have a drink."
One day two Mounties arrived at Minicks. They said to Bill, "We understand, Mr. Minick, you have a gallon of whiskey around here." "No," said Bill, "ye are wrong,
I had two gallons, but the Protestant S.O.B.'s came down from the north."
At Minick's first sale two Mounties were there looking for a 'still'. Earlier that morning Minick and men had branded cattle. So they dug a hole, put the moonshine in, carefully covered the hole and heaped ashes on top. Although the Mounties searched well, they never found the moonshine.
One day Tim and Tom Bazley were driving along the road north of Minicks when they met Old Bill.
Tom Bazley said, "What are you looking for?" Old Bill said, "I am looking for my horses. I haven't seen sight, light, tail or tidings of them for a week." Later he did find his horses.

Died at his daughter's place, Mrs John Joyce of Loretto, Ontario

William Robert Minnock and Honora Horan had the following children:

- i. WILLIAM JEROME⁴ MINNOCK (son of William Robert Minnock and Honora Horan) was born on 06 May 1883 in Albion Township, Peel County, Ontario. He died in 1934 in Edgerton, Alberta.

Notes for William Jerome Minnock:

From "Across the Years", Chauvin, Ribstone and Districts History
Romeo (Jerome) Minnick
Jerome, or Romeo, or Rommey as he was better known, was the son of that colourful character, Bill Minnick whose story is told in Edgerton's book "Winds of Change". Rommey filed on land on the west side of the Cresthill district, the NE 1/4 26-42-3 in June of 1914. One other person had previously taken that quarter, a man called Ambrose Stitzer. Minnick received his patent in the spring of 1919. Beside his homestead, he grazed some of the Hudson Bay County land in section 26-42-3. He owned a number of Clydesdale horses and specialized in shorthorn cattle. Rommey never married. He died in the early years of the 1930's.

Owen Sound Newspaper dated July 27, 1928. Family type article.

"Family honors Mr. B. Traynor on 91st Birthday

Four Generations Represented on Happy Occasion"

"A very happy re-union was held on July 20th at the home of Mr. Bernard Traynor, 1704 Seventh avenue east, when Mr. Traynor celebrated his 91st birthday and his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were assembled to show their love and esteem for their beloved parent. Mr. Traynor was born in Albion, Ont., in 1837, the year of the rebellion. At the age of nine he came with his father and mother to the Irish Block, where he resided until 1911. Sixty-seven years ago he was married to Miss Mary O. Donnell and their union was blessed with a family of 12, nine of whom are living. His beloved wife was called by death 21 years ago.

Mr Traynor is highly respected by all his acquaintances and during his long life has held several positions of trust. He was councillor in the Sydenham council and later magistrate for many years. He was also the tax collector, which position he held for several years, after he had become a resident of Owen Sound. It was in 1911 that he took up residence in Owen Sound, where he lives quietly and happily with his daughter, Miss Mary E. Traynor. He has one sister still living, Sister Patricia of St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph.

On Friday he was the recipient of many tokens of respect and congratulatory messages from his friends and neighbours. Among the grandchildren present was Rev. Father McReavy of Acton. In the course of the afternoon, a dainty tea was served from a buffet table, centered with a birthday cake, decorated with 91 candles. The color scheme of the table was pink and white. Miss Mary E. Traynor was assisted during the tea-hour by the following grandchildren: Miss Patricia McReavy, Miss Margaret Traynor, Miss Ilene Traynor, Mrs. J. P. Brett and Miss Marguerite Cahoon.

In the presence of his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, Mr. Traynor was presented with a beautiful bouquet by little Jean Traynor and the following address was read by Miss Mary Traynor: 'We, your sons, daughters, and grandchildren are assembled here today to show you, our esteemed father, some token of love and respect. It is indeed very few children and grandchildren who have the wonderful privilege of having a father still with them on earth at the good old age of 91. We are here, today, to pray and hope that God may spare you for many more years to be the happiness and blessing of our lives.'"

Obituary from the Owen Sound Newspaper dated 19 Aug 1917.

"Death of Michael Traynor"

"The death took place early Sunday morning at his residence, 330, 13th St.East of Michael Traynor, an old and highly respected citizen of this town and formerly of Sydenham township. The late Michael Traynor had been suffering for some time from pernicious cancer in the face and death resulted from this disease. He was born in Albion township, Peel County and for nearly the last half century he has been a resident of the township of Sydenham, fourth concession, Garryowen, until five years ago when he came to reside in Owen Sound. He was a constant member of St. Mary's R. C. Church and a member of the Liberal party. Though a sufferer from an incurable malady he bore it with the greatest indurance, being fully resigned to God's Holy Will. Besides his widow he is survived by a family of seven, four sons and three daughters, Bernard, of Sydenham; Michael, of Woodford; John Charles of Saskatchewan; David P. (); Mrs. Wm. Alexander, Woodbridge; Mrs. Arthur Hall, Toronto and Mrs. Robt. Hood of Sydenham. He is also survived by two brothers and three sisters, Messrs. Bryan and Patrick of Owen Sound and Mrs. Chas. Matthews of Sydenham; Sr. M. J. Patricia of Guelph and Mrs. Wm. Doyle of the Soo, Mich.. The funeral took place on Tuesday a.m. at eight o'clock, from his late residence to St. Michael's cemetery, Sydenham and was largely attended. Requiem High Mass was conducted by Rev. Father J. J. Traynor, of Kennelworth, nephew of the deceased, and assisted by his grand nephew, Rev. Father P. McReavy. and Rev. Father Roach, and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Sharp. The pall bearers were six nephews of the deceased. Messrs. Bernard, Frank and Linus sons of Bryan Traynor; Messrs. Michael and Maurice, sons of Patrick Traynor and Simon O'Reilly son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Reilly."

Generation 3 (con't)

Notes for Frances Philomena Stuart:

Handwritten note in Traynor Family Files from Gray County, Genealogical Society.
 "Traynor, Frances P. wife of Michael died Feb 15, 1932 age 85 yrs, but her 86th year." The statement then is very difficult to read but appears to have something to say about Michael and the date August 19, 1917. This is obviously referring to his death on that date.

Michael Traynor and Frances Philomena Stuart had the following children:

119. i. FRANCES P.⁴ TRAYNOR (daughter of Michael Traynor and Frances Philomena Stuart) was born in 1871 in Sydenham Township., Grey County, Ontario, Canada. She married William Joseph Alexander (son of Alexander Alexander) on 12 Sep 1894 in

Notes for Aloysius Victor Traynor:

Owen Sound Nespaper, 1918. Family article.

"Lieut. Victor Traynor presented with purse"

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. M. X. Traynor, Annan, when a large number of friends and neighbors gathered to say good-bye to Lt. Victor Traynor, who leaves shortly for overseas. During the evening, Miss C. O'Reilly read an address and little Margaret Traynor presented him with a fountain pen and purse. Lt. Traynor made a very suitable reply, thanking his friends and assuring them of his appreciation and his remembrance of their kindness. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing. Lunch was served at midnight. The address was as follows:

Dear Victor: We understand you have been called by your King to defend our Empire, from the attacks of a strong and united enemy, whose object is to destroy all civil and moral and national liberty, and to impose upon the world military dictation and military despotism.

Therefore, we, your friends and well-wishers, have met here tonight to bid farewell to you for a time. We regret to part with you at all, but there is work to be done which calls for our strong young men. Our country is in danger, and who would not deem it a privilege to strike a blow in the cause which affects our existence and our honor. You are playing a part in a great war, in which history has no parallel. You are defending righteous principles. You are helping to say to the enemy that the weak and helpless must be protected. Hence with our regret there is always a feeling of pride and confidence in you; a pride we are certain you will justify, by the way you will acquit yourself in every duty, even though sometimes you may be called on to do things contrary to your desire.

Words fail to express the gratitude we owe you, for going out to fight our battles, but we assure you that we and every true patriot, stand resolute behind you, to encourage, strengthen and aid you, in your noble efforts, to bring victory, peace, social and national liberty to oppressed nations the world over. We shall follow you with deepest interest and in our prayers we shall always seek God's blessing and protection for you.

As a slight token of regard and remembrance we ask you to accept this fountain pen and purse of silver and while you are doing your bit in France and Flanders may you feel that we at home shall keep the home fires burning until we welcome you back to home and friends, a hero and a conqueror. Signed: Thomas Carley, Thomas Traynor."

Aloysius received his Medical Degree from Western Medical College in London, Ontario, Canada and practiced medicine in Kitchener, Ontario, Canada

32. ELIZABETH³ TRAYNOR (Ann² Horan, Michael¹ Horan) was born in Mar 1847 in Sydenham Township, Grey County, Ontario. She died on 18 Feb 1920 in Sault Ste Marie, Chippewa, Michigan, USA. She married William "Bill Doyle" Doyle (son of John Doyle and Mary Deacon) on 13 Oct 1868 in St Michael's RC Church, Sydenham Township, Grey County, Ontario. He was born about 1845 in King Township, York County, Canada West. He died before 1923 in Michigan.

Notes for Elizabeth Traynor:

Elizabeth Traynor Doyle emigrated with her husband William Doyle in about 1878 to Saulte Ste Marie Michigan from Grey County, Ontario.

She had four children two living as of 1900. Though she states in the 1900 and 1910 Census that she is married and not a widow, William Doyle is missing from the household.

He may have been working in the Bush; Lumbering or mining.

As you can see, I do not have much information for Elizabeth or William. Stories were told about this interesting and mysterious couple. They both died prior to my mother's birth. My mother was born in 1923. Vincent, their son, married Margaret Cecelia Downs later in his life.

Generation 3 (con't)

"Vincent married later in life with his wife Margaret being 11 years his junior. According to his daughter, Jean, he was a quiet man and did not like a lot of commotion especially during his evening meal. His two youngest children, Jean and Bill, would start cutting up and laughing with a great deal of encouragement from their mother. Margaret enjoyed the silliness of the children and always took great delight in having them all around her. Vincent was a kind man and never raised his voice or his hand. He was the father of ten. On the eve of his death, Vincent was at his home at 1016 Young Street in the Soo. He complained of not feeling well and after a visit from his daughter Jean and her family he retired early. His wife Margaret went to check on him and found that he had passed away in his sleep."

Retold story from Jean Gregg(my mother) by Janis Duwe

Elizabeth did not approve and she did not get along with her daughter-in-law. Although, by the funeral announcements, it appears that Elizabeth did not have a large sphere of people.

Death Announcement from the Sault Evening News.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Doyle of 1312 Minneapolis Street died at the Soo Hospital this afternoon after a few days illness of pneumonia.

Nothing definite can be learned as the funeral arrangements but these will be announced tomorrow.

Mrs. Doyle was 68 years of age. She was a native of Canada, but had resided in Chippewa County for more than 30 years and had a host of friends. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John McKernan of Neebish and a son, Vincent Doyle, of this city.

Funeral Announcement

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Doyle

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Doyle, who died of pneumonia at the hospital Wednesday, will be private and take place Saturday morning at nine'clock from the Ryan Undertaking Parlors. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery.

I visited Riverside Cemetery this summer. The Doyle and Downs have family plots. Elizabeth's grave marker was not visible. I put a call into the caretaker yesterday for more information. William is not buried with her.

Elizabeth and William had 4 children according to the 1900 census. Also, Elizabeth was head of household. Vincent was not married. I do have the evidence that Patricia was a twin at the time of birth and likely the twin died. No information of the fourth child. My mother always said that her grandfather would travel to Duluth to live with the nuns. I never knew what that meant or what his role at a convent was. William and Elizabeth appeared to have lived very separate lives. Also, not verified, William had a "peg leg." This is pure conjecture about the losing of a limb on my part: Vincent traveled through the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and out to the Dakotas. Vincent and Margaret first 2 children that were born in Duluth. I mention this as a possibility that they were moving to different lumber camps looking for work. I know a few of the sons of Vincent and Margaret did this as young men. And, it would seem probable that you could lose a leg in a lumber camp.

Being Irish Catholic, it appears that Elizabeth had many agonizing times. Her daughter, Patricia, was married by The Justice of the Peace!!!! Oh, dear. I found information that they went to Owen Sound to have their wedding solemnized. However, I can not remember where I found this information. Vincent and Margaret appeared to have two different wedding dates as well. One that Elizabeth published in the paper (they eloped and had been married for a while) and the other in Sault Ste. Marie, Canada. The Canadian wedding would have made their first child a "love child." Poor Elizabeth.

Also, when you view marriage registry of Wm and Elizabeth, the maiden name of Wm.'s mother is Palow or Dalow. I found this many years ago which through my search in a different directions. The Deacon reference gives more leads but I do not have any other verifications that it is correct.

Vincent Doyle Dies Sunday (Soo Evening News)

Son of Elizabeth Traynor Doyle and William Doyle

• Vincent Joseph Doyle, a retired Northeastern Leather Co. employee died at 8 p.m. Sunday, May 22 1955, at his home at 1016 Young Street. He was born in Owen Sound, Ont., on Nov. 23, 1873. Surviving are his wife, Margaret; three sons, John, Bernard, and William, all of the Sault; four daughters, Mrs. John (Beatrice) Marken of Mackinaw City, Mrs. Ernest (Mary) Beaumont, Mrs. Ralph (Dorothy) Hart, and Mrs. James (Jean) Gregg, all of the Sault and one sister, Mrs. John McKernan of Neebish Island. He was a member of St. Joseph's Church. The body will rest at the Bailey-Newhouse Funeral Home beginning this evening. Prayers will be said Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Funeral services will be conducted at 9 a.m., Wednesday at St. Joseph's Church. *The Rev. Oliver J. O'Callaghan will officiate and burial will be at Riverside Cemetery.

Callaghan:

• NOTE on Monsignor Oliver J. O'Callaghan: Rev. Oliver J. O'Callaghan was later granted the title of Monsignor. He was the first cousin of Vincent's wife Margaret Downs. He spent most of his religious life pastoring at St. Joseph's Church, Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan.

My sister, Kate, has pictures of the graves sites for the Callaghan Family. When she gets back from her travels I will request them and send them to you. They are buried in Holy Family Catholic Church which is located in Barbeau Michigan, Chippewa County. This is where the Callaghans gathered and I believe they had cabins on Neebish Island.

I do become confused as to the connections. John Downs had a sister named Bridgett Scully. I have notes from Tim Downs regarding the Callaghans:

'...I'm not sure of Maggie O'Callaghan's maiden name but she lived on Sugar Island and used to stay with Timothy Down's family to go to school and was like a sister to Loretto. Bridget Downs was married three times and lived to be 102. In her later years she lived with Maggie O'Callaghan. One of her husband's was named Scully (name mentioned in grandfather's obit). Another was named Hartman. Did she marry an O'Callaghan? Was Monsignor Oliver J. O'Callaghan related to the Downses? "

I know that this is leading away from your families by including the Downs Family. However, in your report you state that Margaret, wife to Frank O'Callaghan, was a Scully. I am thinking that Bridget Downs Scully had a daughter Margaret that married Frank O'Callaghan whose child was Oliver, Leo, Thomas. If this is the correct lineage than according to Family Tree Maker 2012, Oliver was my 2nd cousin 1X removed. The O'Callaghans and the Down Families were very close in the early years. I heard a story that John Downs (my mother's grandfather) sponsored the O'Callaghans to come into the country.

So I have a connection to on the Traynor and Downs side my mother's family.

Notes for William Doyle:

William was the son of John Doyle and Mary Deacon. John Doyle was born in Ireland and grew up in King Township, York County.

I believe he connects to the other Doyles who lived just over the line in Tecumseth Township,

Generation 3 (con't)

Simcoe county.

There were other Deacons in the area as well. There are several DoYLES and Deacons buried in St Mary of Scotland Cemetery in Tecumseth Township, (now called New Tecumseth). William had a brother Michael living in Grey county as well.

The DoYLES buried in St Margaret of Scotland Cemetery are from Leitrum.

From Michael Horan,

According to Joseph's obituary, Joseph and William Horan moved to Isabella County Michigan in 1876. Joseph's farm was near Rosebush, just north of Mt. Pleasant in the central part of the state. Joseph had six grown children, one of whom was Oswal, my grandfather. Oswal had three children, including my father, Frank. Oswal died in 1930; Joseph lived until 1941 (he had just turned 93); Frank, like his father, passed away in his mid 40's. The descendants of Joseph that I know are primarily in Michigan and in Wisconsin, where I grew up. Thanks again!

Joseph's Obituary from the Isabella County Times-News Thursday, January 16, 1941

Solemn Requiem high mass was said by the Rev Fr Gordon Grant, Fr Louis Prohaska and Fr Steve, Wednesday, January 15, at St Henry's church in Vernon for Joseph Horan, who passed away at his home, Sunday, January 12, at the age of 93 years. Interment was made in St Henry's cemetery.

Mr Horan, a pioneer of the county was beloved by all who knew him and it was through his unselfish efforts that St Henry's parish was established. The genial pioneer opened his home until the present church was erected.

The deceased was born on January 4, 1848 at Owen Sound, Canada. He came to Isabella County with his brother, William, in 1876 and in June, 1878, after building his first log cabin on the site of the present farm, he married Ellen Mathews of Owen Sound. At that time the trading posts were Clare and Gladwin and Mr Horan often spoke in later years, of all-day journeys to those posts. He enjoyed the occupation of farming during his life and was a prominent figure in the community in which he resided.

Mr Horan is survived by six children: Vincent Horan, Mary Murphy, Sophia Horan, Benedicta Moon, Loretta Fuller and Patrick Horan.

Mrs Horan preceded him in death on April 7, 1930 and a son, Oswal Horan passed away on July 8, 1930.

Relatives from out-of-town who paid tribute to Mr. Horan were Mrs. Oswal Horan and children, Mary, Joseph and Karen (Kearn), of Green Bay, Wisconsin; Mr and Mrs Joseph Murphy and daughter, Mr and Mrs Larry Kain of Lansing; William Murphy, Fr Lous Prohaska, Mrs. A. Malone and Basil Morrison of Detroit.

Generation 3 (con't)

Notes for William Henry Horan:

From "A Portrait and biographical album Isabella County, Mich", published 1884. Page 336

William Horan, lumberman, section 16, Denver Township, is a son of Michael Horan and Rosanna (Donahue) Horan, natives of Ireland. The parents came from the Emerald Isle when quite young, and were married and settled in the Dominion of Canada, where he died, in September, 1881. She survives.

Generation 3 (con't)

The subject of this biography was born in Canada, Feb. 26, 1850, and lived in the Dominion until 20 years old engaged in farming. He then went South where he spent two years in different places. He then lived a year and a half at Marquette, Michigan and in 1875 came to this county and bought 80 acres in Vernon Township, which he still cultivates. He has 60 acres nicely improved. In the fall of 1883 he removed to Denver Township and brought a saw-mill, which has the capacity of 12,000 feet daily, and employs seven men, He was married at Mt Pleasant, May 31, 1876, to Margaret, daughter of Cornelius and Ellen Bogan, natives of Ireland. Mrs Horan was born in Washtenaw County, Mich., Dec. 8, 1858, and is the mother of four children, -Rose E., Vincent L., Mary, and one yet unnamed. Mr H. has been School Inspector in Vernon Township two years, and is politically a supporter of the Democratic Party.

I am now going to get you caught up on Neil Morrison's data as much as I can. He was born 24 JAN 1867 in Lenox Township, Macomb County, Michigan. He was baptised Roman Catholic - following the dictates of a mixed marriage - Neil Sr. was Presbyterian, Sarah Gormley was RC. However, the RC church will not release the baptismal records so I cannot provide that information. He and Philomena were married on 11 SEP 1892 by John D. Engemann, Rector, St. Bridget's Church in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan. Witnesses were Peter Horan and Miss Maggie Horan. Philomena was listed as 23 years of age which coincides with other records that I have. If you do an age calculation using her birth date and the date of her marriage, she should be listed as 25 when married. They are recorded in the Isabella County Marriages Volume II 1890. They are record number 260.

As I have mentioned before - he just sort of disappeared after that. You have provided that gap. Do you happen to have any information as to when they might have gone back to Canada? If Joseph was born in Isabella County in 1896 and Basil was born in Canada in 1899, then they had to have moved somewhere between those dates.

I have searched through the Isabella Birth records and come up empty for Joseph or Austin Morrison's birth record. I have searched the 1895, 1896 and 1897 records. As one historian for Isabella County explained to me: once a year several people would get in their buggy and go from house to house and collect information about births, deaths and marriages. If the people were not at home another year would pass before things were recorded. For example, I found one birth record in the 1897 recordings for an 1891 birth. So I cannot come up with anything exact as yet for Joseph's birth.

Gotta go for now.

Notes for Louis James Pyette:

This was the Pyette that grand mother Pyette talked about in her memoirs.

He went to sea at 16 when he hired on to a lake boat. The captain of that boat was his uncle Jim Foote. He worked at a variety of boats before entering the service of the CPR railroad. in April 1884. He was promoted to captain in 1904. He was master of the Athabaska, Manitoba before taking command of the Assiniboia, the flagship of the CPR fleet on the Great Lakes.

One of his exploits was when he ordered the Assiniboia "full Ahead" when the locks at Sault Ste. Marie burst open. Had he not done so the boat may well have broken in two, plugging the canal up and stopping further shipping for a spell. This account is reported in the Soo Locks visitors booth.

His most difficult journey was in the autumn of 1913. He was returning his son William to Owen Sound, William died of typhus in the Lakehead. They were assaulted by a major storm on the way back..

Good afternoon everyone,

I want to thank everyone, who has responded to my request for information about the parents and siblings of Joseph Martin Horan (who married Martha Marilda Burton). Joe and Martha were married in 1897 at Thessalon; however, their marriage was not registered until 1906. Witnesses to their marriage were Edwin Greenwood and Mary Small. Their parents are not listed on the marriage registration certificate.

They lived in the Blind River district, where Martha's parents (Robert Burton and Ellen Wilson) also lived. Robert was the town blacksmith --- he moved to the Soo in later years, where he lived near his son (John Arthur Burton). Descendants of Ellen and Robert Burton still live at Sault Ste Marie. The following is a descendant list, 3 generations --- any information about the Burton line or history would be greatly appreciated.

Apparently, there was an article in the Soo local newspaper (1936 edition) about Robert Burton and his early life & experiences during the Fenian Raid (which I have a tattered and illegible copy of) --- if anyone has a legible copy, would they please transcribe it and forward it to me. I realize this is asking a lot, but I do not know the names of the newspaper during the timeframe.

Hello everyone,
This is my first message to the List.

I am researching my husband's line and attempting to find his great grandparents. Mervin (my husband) is a grandson of Joseph Martin Horan and Martha Marilda Burton. Joseph was born in Ontario (Algoma County) in May 1872. It is believed that his mother's name was Adelia -- father unknown. His parents were buried in Dayton, Ontario. Joseph and Martha died in Shellbrook, Saskatchewan.

Martha was a daughter of Robert Burton and Ellen Wilson. She was born in Haliburton district, Algoma County and died at Blind River (Ontario). Her father, Robert, died in Sault Ste Marie where many family members still live. Her mother, Ellen, died in Blind River.

Hope someone can point me in the right direction (or possibly researching the same line), where I can find info on "unknown Horan and Adelia". They are not listed on Census records, to the best of my knowledge. Looking to make contact with other descendants or cousins.

HORAN, SUSAN Z. (Sue, nee Roberts) Born in Regina, Sask July 9th 1930, Sue passed away at the age of 73 on a sunny Kelowna morning, April 16th, 2004 with her children at her side. The second eldest of five children, Sue was raised in Regina in the "dirty thirties." She graduated from Scott Collegiate in Regina and later went to work for Imperial Oil where she met the love of her life, best friend and soulmate Hal (predeceased 1999). Together they raised six children, Wanda Manchester (Lloyd), Ward Horan, Wynn Runka (Dwayne), Catherine Horan (Dana Huggard), Clay Horan, Caryl Horan (Roy Collins). Sue watched 11 grandchildren grow and blossom; Brooke (Dave Young) and Lee Manchester; Ashley, Brett (Nicole Langner) and Colin Runka; Rachel Huggard; Danielle and Craig Horan; Courtney, Cate and Cassidy Collins and new great granddaughter Naomi Runka. Predeceased by her parents and brother Finlay Roberts, Sue is survived by one brother Frank Roberts (Jean) and two sisters, Doris Merkosky (Martin) and Ann Mizzi (Albert). She lived in Kelowna for nearly 33 years and along with Hal, owned and operated the Port Gift Shop from 1974 to 1990. Sue loved a card game and her family has very special memories of many hands played well after the clock struck midnight. Visitors were always asked if they had time for a "quick?" game of crib, golf or her favourite "the rummy game." She bought her lotto tickets faithfully every week, but never won the million. Grandma Sue celebrated every birthday and special occasion with cards and presents, and she always had a treat on hand for her grandchildren. They will miss her and her ever-full bowl of scotch mints. Although it is difficult to say goodbye, we kids will get through the sadness by remembering that Dad and Mom are now soaring the skies together. Mom, you were first class, you thought of others first and the legacy of life you leave behind is a tribute to your true strength. We love you, we'll miss you, and we treasure the gift of your life. The children of Sue extend a heartfelt thank-you to the nurses and counsellors of the Palliative Care Unit in Kelowna. Their compassion, knowledge and dedication helped us make it through this very difficult time. At the request of Mom, there will be no funeral service. In lieu of flowers, friends and family wishing to do so may make donations to the Palliative Care Program, 2268 Pandosy St. Kelowna, BC V1Y 1T2.

Notes for George Beadon Warnica:

Hello Leo and thank you for writing

Yes I'm very familiar with that George Beadon Warnica. His father was the brother to my great grandfather, Orchard Warnica.

George B. Warnica was born to Thomas Beadon Warnica and an Orillia Ontario family's daughter, Christina Ellen Reid.

Generation 3 (con't)

Thomas was a blacksmith in Orillia Ont. and being a large powerful man was hired to take a prisoner to Port Arthur where Thomas caught small pox and died there in 1874. He was buried next to a large tree that is now under the trans Canada highway.

The George B Warnica living with the Hugh Reid family is the same George. Christina's family helped raise the children after Thomas' death.

George was with Hugh Reid and eventually raised by the Tudhope family in Orillia. Christina's sister Mary married William Tudhope and took George in.

George was a gardener and was a Bar Tender in Port Arthur Ontario (now Thunder Bay).

The second George is not your George B Warnica but George Wilbert Warnica, son of William Alfred Warnica and Catherine Steele, and the second cousin to George B. Warnica.

George Beadon Warnica and Barbara Adealia Horan had ten children, Christina Elizabeth Ann Warnica, Lucinda Rita Warnica, Mona Viola Warnica, George Thomas Warnica, Lavinna Pearl Warnica, Martin Sylvester Warnica, Myrtle Adealia Warnica, Robert Joseph Warnica and William Hugh Warnica.

Please tell me how you are distantly connected.

What part of Nova Scotia are you in?

Thanks again for writing

Notes for Sarah Ann Higgins:

Baptised 28 June 1843, Sponsors: Richard Tracey, Bridget Tracey

Record found in the St James RC Church, Colgan Adjala Twp. Simcoe County. The baptism probably occured at St Margaret of Scotland RC Church, Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County which was closer to where her parents were living in Albion Township to the south.

Some census records state that Sarah was born in the US, (like her older siblings) and some state Canada. She may have been born in Ohio but was back in Canada for her baptism.

He was born on 10 Nov 1856 in Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County, Ontario. He died on 05 Mar 1911 in Brantford, Ontario, Canada.

Notes for Bridget Mary Reilly:

Bridget was the daughter of Edward Reilly and Marie Horan.

Edward was probably from either County Armagh or Cavan and emigrated to Upper Canada in the 1820's.

Edward and his wife Marie farmed in Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County. There were other Reillys in the adjoining farms though I do not know if Edward and these other two, (Henry and Francis) were related though likely.

Marie Horan 1816-1902 was the daughter of Michael Horan and Mary Minnock. Mary was born in Kings County Ireland, (Offaly), and emigrated with her family in 1823.

Mary Minnock Horan petitioned for land in Albion Township, In 1824 part of York County. Later this area became Peel County.

Edward and Marie probably married at St Margaret's of Scotland RC Church Tuam, Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County in 1838, which was a mission of St James RC Church in Colgan.

Bridget grew up in Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County.

Obituary found in Brantford Expositor. April 12, 1938, Page 14, Column 1 and April 14, 1938, Page 6, Column 6

Notes for John Joseph Treacy:

John Joseph Treacy was born 1856 in Tecumseth Township, Simcoe County. He was the son of Patrick Treacy and Elizabeth Calhoon and the grandson of Richard Treacy and Bridget Hanley.

From Alberta Horan, Great Falls Montana,

It has been a while since I contacted you. I have been too busy to get into doing the history of Joe's family, but in wading through the book you sent me, I noticed on page 145 that there was no mention of Francis Xavier Horan, brother of John H (Jack) Horan, Maria Ann(who was later known as Sister Mathias, Provident Sisters) and Cecelia. Francis (Frank) farmed south of Great Falls, Married Nina (can't remember maiden name), Frank and Nina had Following children: Winifred m. Tony Cereck, James, George (Bud) never married died in WW 11), Donald m. Ruth Frank, Thomas m. Dorothy ?, and Patricia m. ? Maybe I already gave you that info, but if you want further info Donald and Winifred live in Great Falls, altho Winifred is in bad health. She seems to have a lot of the Horan history and also Reillys. Hope this isn't repetition of stuff already sent. Hope you and your family are doing well. Through my nephew's web in Madison, I have been in contact with a distant cousin who lives in England and has done a massive study of the Risdon family (my mother's line) so all of this information is flowing in so hope I can get it all sorted out. The Risdon family reunion in England will be in 2006 and my two older girls want to go to England, but I will be 88 by that time so don't know if I will be up to it. Our trip to Ireland to where my father was born was wonderful, but I don't trot around as fast as I used to, although I am still working part time, and my general health is good. Best wishes

Alberta Horan

Hello Alberta,

Archibald William Francis Xavier Horan is on Page 113. I don't have additional information in the book yet about his children. Thanks for sending it. This is new information about Winifred as well. The last time we wrote you were contacting Her.

The EAST OHIO GAS County EXPLOSION AND FIRE took place on Friday, 20 Oct. 1944, when a tank containing liquid natural gas equivalent to 90 million cubic feet exploded, setting off the most disastrous fire in Cleveland's history. Homes and businesses were engulfed by a tidal wave of fire in more than 1 sq. mi. of Cleveland's east side, bounded by St. Clair Ave. NE, E. 55th St., E. 67th St., and the MEMORIAL SHOREWAY. At approx. 2:30 P.M., white vapor began leaking out of Storage Tank No. 4, which had been built by the East Ohio Gas County in 1942 to provide additional reserve gas for local war industries. The gas in the tank, located at the northern end of E. 61st St., became combustible when mixed with air and exploded at 2:40 P.M., followed by the explosion of a second tank about 20 minutes later. The fire spread through 20 blocks, engulfing rows of houses while missing others. The vaporizing gas also flowed along the curbs and gutters and into catch basins, through which it entered the underground sewers, exploding from time to time, ripping up pavement, damaging underground utility installations, and blowing out manhole covers. The immediate area surrounding the burning district was evacuated and refugees were sheltered in Willson Jr. High School on E. 55th St. where the Red Cross tried to care for approx. 680 homeless victims. By late afternoon Saturday much of the fire had burned itself out, electricity was restored in some areas, and the next day a few residents began returning to their homes. The fire destroyed 79 homes, 2 factories, 217 cars, 7 trailers, and 1 tractor; the death toll reached 130. The fire and subsequent analysis of its cause led to new and safer methods for the low-temperature storage of natural gas.

Mary Ann Nash Obituary

O'Donnell

Mrs. Mary Ann O'Donnell, whose death occurred June 13, 1946, at their home, 826 Lincoln Avenue, Clay Center, will always be remembered by her sons and daughters, and others who knew her well as a most devoted mother. Her love for her home was the most outstanding characteristic of her life, and stands as an example of fidelity and sacrifice for those she served. Like all mothers of large families, her duties were unending, but she was never too tired to work for her family, and to help them in their difficulties.

Born Mary Ann Nash, November 13 1861, at Brampton, Ontario, SX., Canada, she was the daughter of mr. and mrs. Patrick Nash. She grew to womanhood in Canada, and was united in marriage with Jeremiah O'Donnell, January 8, 1889.

Mr. and Mrs. O'donnell came to kansas forty-seven years ago, and located in the Kimeo community, in Washington county. They resided there twenty-five years, before coming to Clay county. for the last fifteen years the O'Donnell home has been in Clay Center.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell were the parents of seven sons and five daughters, all of who are living. Mr. O'Donnell died June 21, 1938.

Mrs. O'Donnell had been in declining health for a number of months, but suffered a stroke three weeks before the end came. Her age was 84 years and seven months. she had long been a devout member of the Sts. Peter and Paul's Catholic church. She lived a good life, loyal to her church; friendly, kindly, and faithful to her family and friends. During her ill health her sons and daughters came to see her and were thoughtful of her.

Surviving relatives include the sons and daughters; Frank and Henry of Wichita, Martin and Nicholas, Sacramento, Calif.; Gus, Manhattan, Bert Twin Falls Idaho, William, Abilene; Mrs. W. P. Hess, Mrs. Lawrence Esslinger, Margaret O'Donnell of the home, Clay Center; Mrs. Thomas Crimmins, Green, Mrs. Sarah Horan, Abilene, also three brothers, John of Green, Michael of Strong City, and Nicholas Nash, and one sister Mrs. Susan McQuillen of Sacraments, Calif, a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Rosary was held Friday evening, June 14 at the O'Donnell home. the funeral was held Saturday morning, June 15 at nine o'clock at the Sts. Peter and Paul's Catholic church, with the Rev. Emil Sinner conducting low mass. The choir sang appropriate numbers.

Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery. The five sons, Frank, Henry, William, Gus and Martin O'Donnell, and a nephew, Dan McQuillen, were the body bearers.

Relatives and friends joined in honoring the memory of the departed mother.

Besides the sons and daughters, and their families, those present from a distance were Mr. and

- v. JAMES ALBERT O'DONNELL (son of Jeremiah O'Donnell and Mary Ann Nash) was born on 09 Feb 1895 in Toronto Gore Township, Peel County, Ontario, Canada. He died on 07 Sep 1950 in Idaho.

Notes for James Albert O'Donnell:

James Albert, or Bert as he was called never married, moved from Kansas to Idaho to be close to some friends, had auburn hair looked sort of like Burt Lancaster. He died after getting in fight in a bar. He took it outside, and the other guy hit him. He fell backwards and hit his head on the curb and died. We met the guy who hit him at a reunion. He was a cousin and a McGrath.

When he was in Kansas he drove an old model T around the country selling vegetables and whatever. My sister Bernardine went with him a lot.

[ElishiaMullinix.FTW]

Mother said that he would sometimes come into our house at night and she could hear him drinking the milk and she never knew if she would have enough for my bottle in the morning.

- vi. AGNES BRIDGET O'DONNELL (daughter of Jeremiah O'Donnell and Mary Ann Nash) was born on 12 Jan 1896 in Toronto Gore Township, Peel County, Ontario, Canada. She died on 13 Mar 1996 in Clay Center, Kansas. She married LAWRENCE ESSLINGLER.

- viii. MARGARET MARY O'DONNELL (daughter of Jeremiah O'Donnell and Mary Ann Nash) was born on 22 Aug 1898 in Toronto Gore Township, Peel County, Ontario, Canada. She died on 13 Feb 1963 in Clay Center, Kansas.

Notes for Margaret Mary O'Donnell:

Margaret O'Donnell had red hair and blue eyes. She was evidently a pretty lively person in her day. Drove a car, worked at the toy factory. She contracted a severe form of arthritis which paralyzed her legs in a stiff position and her fingers outstretched. She walked with a crutch all her life, but had to be helped up and down and dressed. She sat on a built up chair and with some effort give herself sort of a boost and get up from the chair. Even with this handicap she did beautiful embroidery work and made wonderful pies. After my grandparents died she lived by herself basically with someone putting her to bed and perhaps sleeping there.

Generation 4 (con't)

Margaret never married. My sisters think she had her eyes on Tommy Crimmins who married her sister Loretta. She drove a Dodge car and came to town to bring in eggs and cream. She was the manager of the toy factory in Clay Center. Alma and Eleanor worked there. they made more money because of hard work ethic.

- ix. SARAH ANN O'DONNELL (daughter of Jeremiah O'Donnell and Mary Ann Nash) was born on 23 Aug 1899 in Toronto Gore Township, Peel County, Ontario, Canada. She died on 24 Mar 1997 in Kansas City, Missouri. She married FRANK HORAN.

The O'Donnell Family

Presumption plays its part in the evaluation of historical data. For example prior to 1859, John O'Donnell was in possession of the following parcels of land: Lot 11, Conc. 8, Lot 11 east 9, Lot 14, Conc. 11, Toronto Gore Township. Believed to have emigrated to Canada alone, he lived with his uncle, John O'Connor on Lot 8, Conc. 10. O'Connor, well established on his farm, is reputed to have owned these lots, and then sold out to Abel Robinson. It is believed that O'Donnell reached some financial agreement with his uncle for possession of the above properties.

In 1858 O'Donnell married Mary Horan and moved on to Lot 14, Conc. 10. Here he built his log home. For some unknown reason the home developed a spectral atmosphere, at least according to old timers, it was haunted. No actual apparitions were seen, but there was a feeling in the air, and the local folk avoided this house after dark. The building of a new brick home in later years did nothing to dispel the feeling of wraiths moving about. An outside entrance to the cellar had been added to the new home. Composed of wood, it would resound with squeaks and squeals when trod upon by the sheep. which were allowed to roam at large. This was sufficient to create imaginary- hobgoblins; running about in the minds of the superstitious Irish.

Eleven children were born to the O'Donnells. In 1891 the eldest son, Jeremiah, succeeded to the farm, and then married Mary Ann Nash of Castlemore. The second and third sons, John and William, moved to Kansas before the turn of the century and their descendants still reside there. Lot 11, Conc. 8 was sold to Patrick Fanning. Another son, James, settled upon Lot 11, Conc. 9. Joseph succeeded to the home farm and his son Edward carried on the O'Donnell name in the

Gore. Today Edward and Rose O'Donnell and their two children, Kathryn and Peter. live on Seventeen Sideroad. Ed is busy most evenings with the work of the Marysfield Credit Union.

Information from Lyle O'Donnell:

Edward Pendergast is one of our common relatives who still lives near the original territory where John and his family settled. Edwards mother was Margaret O'Donnell (a sister of Jeremiah, William and John Senior). In a recent visit with him, he added another chapter to the story. Apparently John had a half-sister. Records show that his mother (Margaret) was remarried to Thomas Fowler February 6, 1844 and had a daughter named Mary born May 28, 1845. When I was in Ireland last August, I went to visit the Limerick archives. I paid them to do a search of John O'Donnell's who were born in 1836 in the County of Limerick to a mother with the maiden name of O'Connor. They found two records. One of them can be eliminated because that John O'Donnell had younger siblings. It is unlikely his mother would have come to Canada without them. The second John was an illegitimate child born to Margaret O'Connor. The father was neither James nor Michael. His name was Jeremiah!!! Since that name shows up in the children that John Senior had, there is a possibility that he was the father of our line.

John Joseph O'Donnell and Mary Jane McCarron had the following children:

- i. WILFRED⁵ O'DONNELL (son of John Joseph O'Donnell and Mary Jane McCarron) was born on 25 Mar 1893 in Toronto Gore Township, Peel County, Ontario, Canada. He died on 06 Sep 1953 in Oliver, Alberta.
 - ii. VINCENT PATRICK O'DONNELL (son of John Joseph O'Donnell and Mary Jane McCarron) was born on 14 Dec 1896 in Castlemore, Toronto Gore Township, Peel County, Ontario, Canada. He died on 31 Dec 1943 in Alberta. He married Frances Keenan (daughter of James Keenan and Mary Moran) on 30 Jul 1936 in St Francis of Assisi RC Church, North Edmonton, Alberta. She was born on 11 May 1907 in Adjala Township, Simcoe County. She died on 05 Feb 1984.
 - iii. EDWARD O'DONNELL (son of John Joseph O'Donnell and Mary Jane McCarron) was born on 25 Aug 1897 in Toronto Gore Township, Peel County.
 - iv. LEO O'DONNELL (son of John Joseph O'Donnell and Mary Jane McCarron) was born on 06 Feb 1900 in Toronto Gore Township, Peel County, Ontario, Canada. He died on 02 May 1989 in Vancouver, BC.

Obituary from the Winnipeg Free Press

ESME DOHERTY (published on March 17, 2001)

ESME DOHERTY (nee COOK) Peacefully passing through the bonds of earth and touching the hands of God, on March 14, 2001, Esme Doherty passed away at the age of 94 years, with her family by her side. Esme will be forever remembered by her son Thomas of Berlin, Wisconsin; daughter Patricia son-in-law Irvin; granddaughters, Julia and Christa; sisters, Nora Woodman, Molly Doig and family, Jo-Anne, Bob and John; sister-in-law Mary and family, Roberta and Jean, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, including special niece Lisa. She was predeceased by her loving husband Leo in 1974; her parents, Ernest and Mary-Alice Cook, and her brothers, Cecil, Ernie and Tom. Esme was born in Winnipeg on November 28, 1906 where she grew up and spent most of her life. She was the eldest of six children. On November 27, 1940, Esme and Leo were married in St. Marys Cathedral. They lived happily together for 34 years. Esme was an employee of Eatons for many years, working at first during the 20s and 30s in the Home Economics Department as a baker and cake decorator and later in the lingerie department. She had been a member of St. Ignatius Church for 51 years, attending mass daily for as long as she was able to. Her rosary was important to her and was always close at hand. Prayer service for Esme will be held at the St. Ignatius Church (Corydon and Stafford) on Monday, March 19 at 2:00 p.m. Funeral mass will be celebrated the following day, March 20 at 11:00 a.m. also at the church. Interment will take place in Assumption Cemetery following the mass. In lieu of flowers, if friends so desire, donations may be made to a charity of ones choice. "God be with you Mom and Grandma. May you rest in peace." LECLAIRE BROTHERS in care of arrangements; 775-2220.

Hi Sherry.

I am also researching the McReavy family tree out of Canada.

Your great-great grandfather's parents were James McReavy and Hannah Cahoon. They were married in Ireland, and James and 2 of his sisters were born in Ireland. The remaining siblings were born in Adjala. They are, order of their birth:

Ann (married James Rose)
James (married Ellen Curran)
Catherine (married James/John McGurran)
John (married Mary Ann Cahoon)
Patrick (became Brother Anthony)
Margaret (became Sister Mary)
George (married Annie Traynor)
Mary Jane (married Robert Spence)

- Ann & James Rose left Canada and went to Michigan (not sure where from there)
- Catherine was married in Alliston (outside of Adjala). searching now to see if she left there.
- John & his line stayed in the Owen Sound area (he was my great-great grandfather)
- have not found Patrick yet
- found Margaret's death record in Ottawa

Generation 4 (con't)

- George & Annie and their line also stayed in the Owen Sound area
- Mary Jane & Robert Spence were married in Collingwood and were looking for what happened to them next.

New Article from Owen Sound Newspaper dated 11 Dec 1956.

"Returning From Father's Funeral Man Is Killed"

"Member of a well known Owen Sound district family, Stewart Traynor, 50, 89 Edna Street Kitchener, was dead on arrival at the Louise Marshall Hospital in Mount Forest, following a car accident on Highway No 6, five miles south of that town Monday afternoon at about 5 o'clock. Mr Traynor, in company with a brother, Vincent Anthony Traynor, 45, and Mrs. Traynor, 46, 40 Ridout Street London, was returning to his Kitchener home after attending the funeral of his father, Thomas Bernard Traynor, Mr. Traynor, Sr., an early resident of the Irish Block district, had passed away at the home of his daughter Mrs. T. Hardman at Neustadt and had been buried here earlier Monday. Driver of the car was Vincent Anthony Traynor, 45, who suffered head and facial injuries. Mrs. Traynor was also cut about the face and suffered shock. Members of the family reported Tuesday morning both were in favorable condition. They are in the Mount Forest Hospital. The accident occurred when the right front side of the car hit the right abutment of a bridge and it tore off the right front door. Stewart Traynor was thrown out of the car onto the bridge floor. The right wheel was left in the center of the bridge as the car went hurtling across the span, stopping in the center of the road. Coroner Dr. H. H. Couch of Mount Forest was called and reported that an inquest would be held but no date was set. The late Stewart Traynor was born at the Irish Block where he attended school. He later attended the Collegiate in Owen Sound. He resided in Owen Sound for several years, being connected with the Singer Sewing Machine here. Later he moved to St. Catharines and Niagara Falls. About 10 years ago he moved to Kitchener where he has resided since. He was a salesman for Horne Foods and travelled extensively. A frequent visitor here he was very widely known in the city and district. Mr. Traynor is survived by his wife, the former Rose Connelly and two daughters, Rosemary, Mrs. Don Dow of Niagara Falls and Shirley, Mrs. John Koehler of Kitchener. There are four grandchildren. Also surviving are seven brothers and four sisters: Thomas of Toronto, Elmer of Calgary, Vincent of London, Urban and Charles both of St. Catharines. Louis and Wilfrid, both of Owen Sound, Eulalia, Mrs. T. Hardman R.R. 1 Neustadt, Kathleen, Mrs. K. McMillan of Hamilton, Loretta, Mrs. N. McMillan of Sudbury and Theresa, Mrs. H. Bernoski of Kitchener. His mother died on October 16, and his brother-in-law Harold Bernoski, died November 28. Mr. Traynor was a member of the Roman Catholic Church. The funeral will be held in Kitchener."

Obituary from Owen Sound Newspaper dated July 13, 1936

"ANNAN RESIDENT PASSES SUDDENLY"

"Mrs. M. J. Traynor Had Enjoyed Good Health Till Friday"

"Death came with startling suddenness, Monday morning to a well known resident of the Annan district, Mrs. M. J. Traynor. Mrs. Traynor, aged 51 had been ill only since Friday, when she was taken to the General and Marine Hospital here and she passed away at 10:30 on Monday morning. Mrs. Traynor, whose maiden name was Catherine Agnes Carr, was born at Woodford, and has been a resident of this community all her life. She was very well known throughout the entire district, and her sudden passing will come as a terrible shock to her many friends.

Mrs. Traynor was very active throughout her life, and the assistance she was always willing to render to her neighbors in time of need will be remembered by them with true gratitude. She had enjoyed excellent health for several years and until her sudden illness Friday she had been as active as usual.

Mrs. Traynor was married in 1905 to Mr. M. J. Traynor, the marriage taking place in Owen Sound. Her husband remains to mourn her loss. There also survive eleven children: Charles, at home; Laura, Mrs. Charles Lambert, of Niagara Falls; Raymond, of Hamilton; Clara of Owen Sound; Anthony, Lillian, Elfreda, Bazil, Edna, Iva, Milroy, all at home.

Two brother and three sisters also survive: Mrs. Ambrose Healy, Mrs. Bernie Traynor, both of Owen Sound. Mrs. J. B. McGuire of Calgary; Urban of Toronto; and James of California.

The funeral service will be held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church in the Irish-Block, with Father John McGuire in charge."

Second notice in Owen Sound Newspaper dated July 16, 1936.

"Many Attend Service of Mrs. M. J. Traynor"

"Well Known Annan Resident Laid to Rest Wednesday"

"Many friends and relatives gathered on Wednesday morning to pay last respects to Mrs. M. J. Traynor, who passed away suddenly on Monday morning. The service which was held in St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church, Sydenham, was conducted by Father John McGuire, of Owen Sound, and Rev. Father Shook of Toronto sang Requiem High Mass.

In his sermon, Father McGuire paid striking tribute to the true Christian Life of service that Mrs. Traynor had led. Further recognition of the esteem in which the late Mrs. Traynor was held throughout the community was shown by the large number who came to pay last tribute to the deceased, both from this district and from many other points throughout the province, and by the profusion of floral tributes which were received.

Friends and relatives were present at the service from Toronto, Niagara Falls, London, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Owen Sound, Dornoch, Chatsworth, and Meaford.

The following were the pallbearers: Messrs. Linus Traynor, Ambrose Healy, Michael Traynor, Edward Godfrey, Bernard Trayner, and Robert Hood.

Interment following the service at the church was made in St. Mary's cemetery, Irish Block, Sydenham."

"Enlisted From the West - Had not been heard of by Relatives for eight years"

"Pte. Charles Traynor, son of the late Michael and Mrs. Traynor, 13th St. East, before he went overseas was a blacksmith and had learned the trade with Mr. Doherty. He later went to Meaford and later to the West. For eight years he had not written and his relatives did not know where he was, until one time he was at Shorncliffe and there met an acquaintance from Owen Sound. The acquaintance wrote a letter home telling of the meeting and then Mrs. Traynor got into communication with the Record Office, but her son had enlisted under the name of Charles (his second name) and she was unable to locate him. It was a most pleasant home coming to Mr. Traynor and a great happiness to his mother. Pte. Traynor was with the 1st Pioneers in France and in Belgium and on account of a shortage of troops, was called to go over the top on many occasions. He is a fine big strapping man of 36 years of age. His brother, Mr. David P. Traynor, is in Hamilton at present."

Notes for Oswald Horan:

Letter from Michael Horan, originally from Green Bay Wis

Generation 4 (con't)

As you know, one of Joseph Horan's sons born in Michigan was Oswald (I had always been told "Oswal"). Oswald married Clara A. Conway. Clara, my grandmother, was born in Michigan on January 27, 1889 to David Conway and his wife, the former Mary Whitney. I'm not sure when Oswald and Clara married, but they had three children: Mary Ellen (b. 1913?, married Edwin Timmerman); Joseph (b. 1915? married Bernice_____, d Dec. 1988 or "89; and my father, Francis K. "Frank", b. Feb. 1918, married Gwendolyn Wright 1946, d. Nov. 1964.

Oswald died in Mount Pleasant, Michigan (where his family had long resided, and not far from Joseph's farm) in 1930. Meanwhile, Clara's brother, Joseph M. Conway, had acquired the Hoberg Paper County in Green Bay, Wisconsin. J.M. Conway had previously worked as a bank examiner and at one point, probably in the 1920's, had been appointed receiver for Hoberg Paper. Having turned the paper mill into a profitable operation by the time of the Great Depression, J.M. offered employment to several of his Michigan relatives. He also moved his widowed sister Clara and her family to Green Bay, and supported them for the duration of the Depression. Ultimately, J.M. sold Hoberg Paper to Proctor & Gamble; I not sure whether the name was changed to "Charmin" before or after the sale. To this day, the Conways share some P&G wealth; my family had the benefit of not suffering want during the Depression (but no P&G wealth!). By the way, Clara remarried after her children were grown, and died March 5, 1977 as Clara A. McNerney. Many of my father's cousins and their children still live in the Mount Pleasant MI area. In fact, one of them called me today, while vacationing in Florida, asking where I was on my genealogy search. May I copy for them some of your emails (which would contain your email address)? Finally, inspired by the reference in "Adjala"(which you provided to me) to the "Parish of Rahan" in Offaly County, I researched some Irish sources on line. For what it's worth, I found some references to "Clonshanny" as the possible identity of the Irish point of origin. I hope this email is helpful, despite my failure to use a family tree format. Best regards, Mike

Rev. William Maximus Murphy, CSB

27 September 1917 - 30 January 2004

William Maximus Murphy CSB died January 30, 2004, at Anglin House in Toronto, after a brief illness. The wake service and funeral Mass took place in the chapel of the Cardinal Flahiff Basilian Centre. Fr. Michael Cerretto CSB, Superior of Anglin House, led the vigil service, with Fr. Bob Power CSB, a long time friend, delivering the homily. Fr. Ken Decker CSB, the Superior General of the Basilian Fathers, presided at the concelebrated funeral Mass, and Fr. Jack Whitley CSB, the long serving Mission Procurator, preached. Fr. Tom Dugan CSB, a long-time missionary in Mexico, led the grave-side prayers at the interment in the Basilian plot at Holy Cross Cemetery in Thornhill, Ontario.

Fr. Murphy was born September 27, 1917, in Clare, Michigan, the son of the late James Murphy and Mary Horan (Murphy). After his graduation from Clare High School, he attended Assumption College in Windsor, Ontario. He entered the Basilian Novitiate in Toronto and professed first vows in 1939. His teaching career began at St. Thomas High School in Houston. While stationed at Catholic Central in Detroit, he received his Masters Degree in Education from Wayne State University.

Generation 4 (con't)

After completing studies in theology at the seminary in Toronto, he was ordained to the priesthood by Archbishop McGuigan in Toronto in 1944. Father Max then began his long career in the parishes of the Basilian missions in Texas and in Mexico. After serving at most of the Texas missions, Max went to Mexico City in 1961 along with Fr. Frank Launtrie, CSB, and ministered in the parish of San Juan Crisostomo, in which Basilians served for many years. From there he moved to the diocese of Tehuacan to the chapel of San Lorenzo, where he introduced the Catequesis Familiar in association with his life-long partners, the Violeta Sisters, whose speciality is catechesis. After many years of service in this apostolate in which he was both a pioneer and innovator, Fr. Max took on a period of mission preaching and parochial work among the people he loved and to whom he ministered for so long and so well. In 1999 he retired to Anglin House where he spent his days in prayer, reading, physical exercise and maintaining an extensive correspondence with friends from all over the world.

Fr. Maximus Murphy truly was, "One of the great ones," as Fr. Whitley expressed in his funeral homily. An account of Fr. Max's life can be framed around his love of words and the Word. Words were his ally, his vehicle of humor, his means of persuasion. He loved all words, printed, spoken, sung, argued, humorous. With them he calmed troubled waters, built lasting bridges and moved immovable barriers. But of them all, the one most important was always the Word of God that he preached, served, and lived. People were often astounded at his sensitivity toward and ability to clearly enunciate the Christian message to humble people. That is why there is such sweet irony in the fact that Max never learned to speak Spanish well (he spoke in infinitives and left it to the members of his audience to supply the correct tense, person and mood). Yet people flocked to hear him and gave witness that they understood his message very well. One woman spoke of Max's teaching, "The Father must love me as he loves Jesus. God cannot not love us." During Max's fifty years of priestly service, he physically worked on building several churches and rectories, was founder and commissioner of the 'Rice Bowl Baseball League,' served in Caltepec, a parish composed of over twenty towns and later, often spent eight hours or more a day in the confessional of the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe, to mention only a few highlights of his devoted involvement. The gem in his work's many-jewelled crown, the "Catequesis Familiar," a three-volume catechism for use with families, still in use in many areas of Latin America, he shared with his beloved Violeta Sisters, County-creators and lifetime collaborators. He welcomed and worked well with women, especially religious women. Max also had the beautiful gift of empowering others to be the best they could be. He touched people because he always respected others, did not, 'crush the bruised reed,' and acted simply, without glamour. He, in turn had the respect of others. There was no malice in him. His academic accomplishments witness to his truth-seeking and his questioning, which sometimes could put others off, with its doggedness. Max had a love affair with obedience that escaped the tinge of slavish blindness. He was a superb storyteller and a not-so-superb practical joker. When the Community felt that it was time for him to be relieved of his duties, mainly for physical reasons, a brief, but painful 'dark-night-of-the-soul' assaulted him. As ever, it was not long before his faith in and love of the Word was renewed. Very soon after, he said, smiling, " My trial of faith is over." Off he went, in holy obedience, to his new posting in Toronto, where he found a whole new audience for his storytelling gift. A mere few weeks before his final illness, he was seen wheeling along the basement corridors, his walker flying along just ahead, stopping only for a short fling at the gym dumbbells. He rode his absolute, abiding confidence in God like a shiny chariot, almost as fast as his walker, on a clear day. He was a sweet man, so much so that those present at his funeral knew that Fr. Whitley was right on target when he gave his last farewell to Max in the Shakespearean quote, " Good night, sweet prince. May angels sing thee to thy rest."

Generation 4 (con't)

Fr. Max would surely have loved the ring of the well-known words. For he faithfully spoke the Word of God, which will not return to God empty.

OBITUARY OF DOROTHY MARILDA [nee Goudal] STERLING, extracted by Eileen Horan from the Shellbrook Chronicle:
STERLING....

Dorothy Morilda Sterling passed away peacefully on October 07th 2008 at the Whispering Pines Place Nursing Home at the age of 85 years.
Dorothy was born on January 17th 1923 in Shellbrook, Saskatchewan.
She was the eldest of three daughters of Hazel and Marcel Goudal.
At birth, Dorothy weighed less than two pounds - as the story goes, her parents kept her in a shoe box by the stove. Dorothy attended school at Pleasantville. Early years consisted of mainly making mud pies, down by the well.
On November 08th 1945, Dorothy married Gordon Sterling in Shellbrook SK.
They lived in the Dodge Farmhouse their first winter together and then moved into Shellbrook, where they resided until their move to Whispering Pines Nursing Home. Dorothy worked at various places in the Shellbrook area. Her dream was to become a kindergarten teacher; she certainly had all the qualities needed. Dorothy will be remembered as a very patient wife, mom and grandmother.
She loved to go on fishing and shopping trips with her grandchildren. She loved to travel. Dorothy visited the United States, Australia, and New Zealand.
Dorothy was very musical. She played the violin at home and played as well in an orchestra. She would play along with Don Messer and the Islanders, or the Cotton Pickers, with such tunes as the Orange Blossom Special, the Tennessee Waltz, or the Heel and Toe Polka.
Baking was another one of Dorothy's talents. She also had a soft spot for all animals and nature. She showed kindness to all animals and even fed the crows in her back yard as she felt sorry for them.
Dorothy's family will remember her favorite saying; "If you are not living, then you are not living - so, you might as well be resting in peace".

Dorothy will be lovingly remember by her husband, Gordon Sterling, of Canwood

Hi there,

some of you may be following the Bruce Lineage....

Bertha Bruce was a daughter Thomas James Bruce [1882-1970] and Adelaide Harriet Corrigan [1885-1922].

Her paternal grandparents were Joseph Charles Bruce and Sarah Jean Slater. Her maternal grandparents were Thomas Corrigan and Ann 'Elizabeth' Hodgson.

Bertha [b.1904] married James 'Jim' Hansen [b.1892 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin], who came to Canada with his brothers in 1914 - being Harvey & Elmer [they were bachelors, all their lives - Elmer, 1888-1970, Harve, 1890-1961]. The Hansen Brothers came to Canada from Flint (Michigan) and took out homesteads in Saskatchewan (near Shellbrook). Bertha and Jim Hansen were married in 1921 at the Anglican Church Manse in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.

I have 5 children recorded for them: Mildred, James Herbert 'Herb', Clifford Edwin, Wilfred John 'Swede', and Kenneth Charles.

Kenneth Charles Hansen [1931-2006] married June Loretta Goudal, a daughter of Marcel Leon Goudal [1900-1975] and Hazel Orlan Horan [1903-1977].

Ken and June were married in 1952 at the Presbyterian Manse in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. They had 2 children: Vaughn and Mona.

Generation 4 (con't)

June's Mother, Hazel Orlan Horan, was a daughter of Martin-Joseph "Joe" and Martha-Marilda [nee Burton] Horan, my husband's Grandparents.

June was a first cousin to my husband, Mervin Edward Horan. She and Ken were wonderful people... as are their children.

I knew them well and they came to visit Mervin when he was in St Paul's Hospital [after suffering a stroke] in Saskatoon, in 1999. At the time, Ken had major heart surgery scheduled for the following day... they were under considerable stress, they still took the time to visit a cousin.

We got together, once all of us were back in Prince Albert..

Take care,
Eileen

OBITUARY OF JUNE LORETTA [nee Goudal] HANSEN, extracted by Eileen Horan from the Prince Albert Daily Herald:

June Hansen, Prince Albert

Born in 12/06/1932 at Shellbrook , Saskatchewan , Canada

HANSEN - June Loretta

June 12, 1932 - April 9, 2009

June was born and raised in Shellbrook and was the youngest of three daughters.

She enjoyed school and was a proud class valedictorian in 1950.

June married Kenneth Hansen from Sturgeon Valley on July 10, 1952.

This was the beginning of a 54 year marriage!

They farmed together for the first 17 years at Sturgeon Valley. June loved the farm!

Many of her fondest memories were from this time period. In 1969, they moved to Prince Albert with their children, Vaughn and Mona.

June entered the business world as a property manager, which she excelled at, until she retired nearly 35 years later. In 1973, she bought and managed Fashion Flair Beauty Salon in Prince Albert. She proudly operated her own business until they expanded their entrepreneurial experience in 1975 to include managing the Lakeview Hotel in Waskesiu for a season.

June joined Ken in real estate and was a Realtor in Prince Albert from 1977 until 1983. At that time, Vaughn joined Ken and June to start Hansen Real Estate, and June became the bookkeeper for the family business instead.

Although working hard was second nature and she thoroughly enjoyed it, she also joined the Prince Albert Lion L's Club and Beta Sigma Phi and played bridge so June wasn't all work and no play! She truly valued the friendships she made through this club involvement.

June and Ken led our family through a wonderful life. Their union resulted in a lifetime of treasured memories. Travelling played an important part in their lives, and they enjoyed several family holidays together. June was a fantastic cook and loved to entertain friends and family here and at the cabin at Emma Lake.

Dancing, however, provided June with the greatest pleasure and joy of all!

June and Ken were beautiful dancers. Our family's fondest memory will always be the living room dance! And Mont St. Joseph's will never be the same without her and Judy Buchanan jumping up to dance whenever music was playing! June's family was the most important thing in the world to her.

She was always there for us, and we learned so much from her. She taught us to be strong, confident, and optimistic. Her quiet, reserved manner and gracefulness disguised an inner strength that we admired, respected, and loved.

She was small but mighty !

Our mother, grandmother, mentor, and friend will be desperately missed.

She was predeceased by her husband Kenneth Hansen; parents Marcel and Hazel Goudal; father-in-law James Hansen; mother-in-law Bertha Hansen; sister Dorothy Sterling; sister Ileen Gordon; brother-in-law Harry Gordon; and brother-in-law

Generation 4 (con't)

Wilfred Farrish.

She leaves to mourn her passing her son Vaughn Hansen (Debbie) of Prince Albert and their children Kristen Pawliw (Derrick) and Jenna Hansen (Dustin Law); her daughter Mona Eskes (John) of Prince Albert and her daughters Martina and Alecia Nagy; brother-in-law Gordon Sterling of Canwood; sister-in-law Mildred Farrish of Provost; and brothers-in-law: Herbert (Jean) of Fort Nelson, Clifford of Red Deer, and Wilfred of Kamloops; and numerous nieces and nephews and their families.

June was made as comfortable as possible by her family; her dearest friend Judy Buchanan; Dr. Gordon Surkan, friends; and the staff at Mont St. Joseph's.

Join us for a celebration of June's life on Monday, April 20 at 2:00 p.m. at Grays Funeral Chapel at 575 28th Street West in Prince Albert, SK with Avonda McKay officiating.

In lieu of other tributes, memorial donations can be made to Mont St. Joseph's Foundation or Charity of Donor's Choice.

Condolences may be sent to the family at <www.grays.ca>.

Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to Gray's Funeral Chapel, Drew Gray, Funeral Director.

- iii. EILEEN GOUDAL (daughter of Marcel Leon Goudal and Hazel Orland Horan). She married HARRY GORDON.

143. MYRTLE⁴ HORAN (Joseph Martin³, John², Michael¹) was born on 21 Dec 1906 in Dayton, Algoma District, Ontario. She died in Oct 1958 in Winnipeg, Manitoba. She married NEWTON MILLER. He was born on 15 Oct 1895 in Kirkpatrick, Ridge District, Northwest Territories. He died in 1966 in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

Newton Miller and Myrtle Horan had the following children:

- i. PERCIVAL NEWTON⁵ MILLER (son of Newton Miller and Myrtle Horan) was born on 15 Aug 1923 in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Canada. He died on 10 Mar 1977 in Gillam, Manitoba, Canada. He married Rose Butt on 01 Jun 1946 in Cheshunt, Hertfordshire, England. She was born about 1926 in England.
- ii. CLIFFORD MILLER (son of Newton Miller and Myrtle Horan). He died in 1972 in Thompson, Manitoba, Canada. He married JEAN RACHEL DEGRYSE. She was born on 19 Nov 1930 in St Boniface, Manitoba, Canada. She died on 18 Sep 2002 in St Vital, Manitoba, Canada.

144. MERVIN JAMES⁴ HORAN (Joseph Martin³, John², Michael¹) was born in 1918 in Brightholme District, Saskatchewan. He died on 23 Sep 1969 in Edmonton, Alberta. He married ALICE MARY SYRETTE (daughter of Edward Syrette and Cecilie Anderson). She was born in 1919 in Shellbrook, Saskatchewan. She died in 1992.

Information from Eileen Horan

I don't know where this fits in yet.

HORAN, SUSAN Z. (Sue, nee Roberts) Born in Regina, Sask July 9th 1930, Sue passed away at the age of 73 on a sunny Kelowna morning, April 16th, 2004 with her children at her side. The second eldest of five children, Sue was raised in Regina in the "dirty thirties." She graduated from Scott Collegiate in Regina and later went to work for Imperial Oil where she met the love of her life, best friend and soulmate Hal (predeceased 1999). Together they raised six children, Wanda Manchester (Lloyd), Ward Horan, Wynn Runka (Dwayne), Catherine Horan (Dana Huggard), Clay Horan, Caryl Horan (Roy Collins). Sue watched 11 grandchildren grow and blossom; Brooke (Dave Young) and Lee Manchester; Ashley, Brett (Nicole Langner) and Colin Runka; Rachel Huggard; Danielle and Craig Horan; Courtney, Cate and Cassidy Collins and new great granddaughter Naomi Runka. Predeceased by her parents and brother Finlay Roberts, Sue is survived by one brother Frank Roberts (Jean) and two sisters, Doris Merkosky (Martin) and Ann Mizzi (Albert). She lived in Kelowna for nearly 33 years and along with Hal, owned and operated the Port Gift Shop from 1974 to 1990. Sue loved a card game and her family has very special memories of many hands played well after the clock struck midnight. Visitors were always asked if they had time for a "quick?" game of crib, golf or her favourite "the rummy game." She bought her lotto tickets faithfully every week, but never won the million. Grandma Sue celebrated every birthday and special occasion with cards and presents, and she always had a treat on hand for her grandchildren. They will miss her and her ever-full bowl of scotch mints. Although it is difficult to say goodbye, we kids will get through the sadness by remembering that Dad and Mom are now soaring the skies together. Mom, you were first class, you thought of others first and the legacy of life you leave behind is a tribute to your true strength. We love you, we'll miss you, and we treasure the gift of your life. The children of Sue extend a heartfelt thank-you to the nurses and counsellors of the Palliative Care Unit in Kelowna. Their compassion, knowledge and dedication helped us make it through this very difficult time. At the request of Mom, there will be no funeral service. In lieu of flowers, friends and family wishing to do so may make donations to the Palliative Care Program, 2268 Pandosy St. Kelowna, BC V1Y 1T2.

Mervin James Horan and Alice Mary Syrette had the following children:

- i. BRUCE JAMES⁵ HORAN (son of Mervin James Horan and Alice Mary Syrette) was born in 1937 in Shellbrook, Saskatchewan, Canada. He died on 02 Jul 2001 in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Canada. He married ELIZABETH STENE. She was born about 1940 in Saskatchewan, Canada.

Notes for Bruce James Horan:

OBITUARY OF BRUCE JAMES HORAN, extracted by Eileen Horan, from the Prince

Albert Daily Herald:

HORAN, BRUCE JAMES; age 64, beloved husband of Mrs Bettie Horan (nee Stene) of Prince Albert passed away on Monday, July 2nd 2001. Prayer service will be held at 7:00pm on Thursday, July 5th, from River Park Memorial Chapel. Funeral service will be held at 2:00pm on Friday, July 6th, from River Park Memorial Chapel in Prince Albert.

The late Mr Horan is survived by his loving family: his wife of 44 years, Bettie Ida (Stene) Horan; his two sons: Wayne (Denise Baldwin) Horan and grand daughters, Rachel and Karen, of Prince Albert; and, Keith (Tammie Marion) Horan and grand daughters Chelsea and Kendall of Prince Albert; his brothers and sisters: Mervin (Eileen Brunner) Horan of Prince Albert (Saskatchewan), John (Viola Provost) Horan of Langley in British Columbia, Ieleen (Robert E.) Atkinson of Lanark in Ontario, Marlene Horan of Saskatoon (Saskatchewan), Orville Horan of Prince Albert, and Arnold (Janet Pilchar) Horan of Abbotsford (British Columbia); his mother-in-law: Lillian (Sonny) Holmes (nee Whaling); his brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law: Vivian (Stene) Wong, Dale (Verna Cutler) Stene, Ron (Rita) STENE, Yvonne (Stene) Helgason, Maryln (Lyle) Herzog, Gail (Bill) Anderson, and Maria (Gerry) Horosko; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Bruce was predeceased by his parents: Mervin James and Alice Mary (Syrette) Horan; his father-in-law, George Stene; and a sister: Darlene Maxine Horan who died in infancy.

Bruce was born on May 23rd 1937 in Shellbrook, Saskatchewan, and at the age of 15 started working at various farms in the area. At the age of 18, he moved to Regina to work in the construction field; and, at the age of 19, moved to Prince Rupert (British Columbia) where he was employed with the

Skeena Pulp Mill and later with Rock Gas Propane.

In July 1957, he married Bettie Stene and, in 1973, they moved to Prince Albert (Saskatchewan) where he worked at North American Lumber (Concrete Division) until his sudden passing.

Bruce enjoyed fishing and woodwork, but most of all he enjoyed spending time with his grand daughters. It is the family's request that, those wishing to place memorials may do so to the Heart and Stroke Foundation or to the Canadian Diabetes Association.

Interment of cremated remains will take place in the Garden of the Old Rugged Cross, in Prince Albert Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

Arrangements are entrusted to the care of River Park Memorial Chapel, 764-2727.

- ii. MERVIN EDWARD HORAN (son of Mervin James Horan and Alice Mary Syrette) was born on 20 Aug 1940 in Saskatchewan, Canada. He died on 07 Feb 2011 in Surrey, British Columbia. He married Eileen Elizabeth Brunner (daughter of Heinrich Frederick Brunner and O'Tillie Fiesel) in 1959 in Calgary, Alberta. She was born about 1945 in Calgary, Alberta.

The Celebration of Mervin's Life was held yesterday afternoon. It was a beautiful service and brought closure to all of us.

OBITUARY OF MERVIN EDWARD HORAN, written by Eileen Horan on February 08th and 11th and 12th, 2011: A shorter Obituary will be published in the Prince Albert Daily Herald, on a later date.

MERVIN HORAN:

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of Mervin Edward Horan on Monday February 07th 2011, at the Cherington Place Care Home in Surrey BC; after a courageous battle with the debilitating effects of MS. The Celebration of Life was held on Friday, February 11th at the New Hope Church [11838 - 88 Avenue] in Delta BC at 1:30pm. Pastor Chris Arney as officiant. Urnbearers: Genai and Alex Horan. Special Music by: Brandie Vansil, Heather Hall, Elizabeth and Genai Horan. Stories of Remembrance by Mervin's children and Grandchildren; and Zeny Pascuala [Recreation Co-ordinator] of Cherington Place. Power Point Presentation by Linda Morrow and Marilyn Hall - with music added to the video, by Brent Morrow. Eulogy by Eileen Horan.

Generation 4 (con't)

Mervin was born August 20th 1940 in Shellbrook, SK. He was the second eldest in a family of 7 born to Mervin James Horan and Alice Mary Syrette. He was born in a wooden granary, in his great-uncle Ralph Anderson's backyard. He attended Hazelridge and West Central schools, completing grade 8. At age 14, he worked for farmers in Blaine Lake, Parkside and Leask until securing a job at the Stockyards in Lloydminster. When he was 16, he moved to Prince Rupert BC with Bruce and Bettie [his older brother]. He returned home at Christmas 1957 and worked for Burns in Prince Albert. On January 07th 1958, Mervin and his cousin [Bud Lee] enlisted in the Army and were posted to Calgary, AB.

Mervin met Eileen in Calgary. They were married January 31 1959 and 5 children blessed their marriage, with all being born in Calgary. Mervin was posted to Cyprus for 6 months, from April to October 1967. In 1968, he was posted to West Germany, where the family lived for 3 years in the City of Soest and later near the Town of Hugelshheim - in the Schwartzvald. They returned to Canada in 1971. He took his discharge in January 1972.

In 1975, Mervin moved to Prince Albert SK, where he lived with his Mother. He secured employment with North American Lumber - Concrete Division as a driver; and held this job until his forced retirement in 1999 due to illness. Eileen joined him in P.A. in March 1988; having lived in Vancouver BC over the years. They renewed their marriage vows on January 31st 1989 - what would have been their 30th Wedding Anniversary. On February 06th 1999, Merv was diagnosed with MS. They moved back to BC August 31st 2004. Mervin became a resident of the care home on Friday, April 13 2007.

Mervin enjoyed curling, skiing, bowling, cards, golfing, hockey and football games, camping, and fishing. His greatest enjoyment was being with his grandchildren and great grandchildren. He also enjoyed family gatherings, with the entire family in attendance. His friendly and gentle nature touched many lives; and, his memory will be kept alive in the hearts and thoughts of many.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mervin James Horan [1918-1969] and Alice Syrette [1919-1992]; his in-laws, Heinrich Fredrick "Henry" Brunner [1898-1970] and O'Tillie Fiesel [1906-1979]; infant sister Darlene [1949]; and brothers: Bruce James [1937-2001] and Orville [1950-2002]; his maternal grandparents: Cecile "Phena" Irene Anderson [1900-1921], Edward Syrette [1888-1973] and Grandpa Ed's second wife, Myrtle Mary Anderson [1898-1953]; his paternal grandparents: Walter Syrett and Alice Bartholomew of London, England; special cousins: Frederick "Douglas" McKay [1915-1982] and his wife Gowan-Frances "Daisy" Dunbar McKay [1919-2010], Violet Jean McKay [1916-2009] and her 2nd husband Ovila William "Bill" Belanger [1927-1980], William "Rowland" McKay [1920-1981], Lily [Syrette] Bell [1924; died before April 2010], Dorothy [Goudal] Sterling [1923-2008]; June [Goudal] Hansen [1932-2009] and her husband - Ken Hansen [1931-2006], Eileen [Goudal] Gordon [1930-2002] and her husband Harry Gordon [1921-1989] - and their son Glen Gordon [1956-2009]; in addition to many cousins, aunts and uncles, and other relatives.

Mervin is survived by his wife, Eileen; his five children: Arnold [Karen] Horan, Linda Morrow and John, Carolyn Horan, Marilyn [Edward] Hall, and James [Lori] Horan; his eleven grandchildren: Arnold's children: Samantha, Elizabeth, Mervin and Genai; Linda's children: Sarah, Amanda and Brent; Marilyn and Ed's daughters: Heather and Jackie; James and Lori's sons: Alex and Jayson; his three great grandchildren: Sarah's daughter Lisa and Elizabeth's children: Seth and Hayley; a daughter in-law, Rose [Bruyere] Horan - being the mother of Arnold's children; his four surviving siblings: John [Vi] Horan of Langley BC, Eileen [Bob] Atkinson of Lanark in Ontario, Marlene Horan of the Herb Bassett Home in Prince Albert, and

Generation 4 (con't)

Arnold [Janet] Horan of Fort Langley BC - and their families; a sister in-law, Bettie [Stene] Horan of Prince Albert - the Widow of his brother, Bruce, and their family; his in-laws: Carrie [Coen] Flemminks of Vancouver BC, Fred [Frieda] Brunner of Surrey BC, Minnie Dumas and Glen Pearn [the widower of Eileen's sister Vi] - both of Calgary AB; his special friends: Richard Slipp, Bernard [Bev] Pritchard, and Jack Pettitt; special nephews and niece: Ted and Tina Flemminks, Danny Pearn, Wayne Horan and Keith Horan; special cousins: John Syrette, Lorette [Dale] Goings, Yvonne [Edward] Primeau, Edward "Bud" [Lillian] Lee, Sandra and Stan Rowden, June and Don Moe, his many nephews and nieces; cousins and other relatives; and his many friends at the care home.

A special thank you is extended from the family to the Staff of Cherington Place Care Home for the wonderful care and compassion that they gave to Mervin, during the nearly four years of his residence there. They and the residents were his extended family; and, he cared for them all deeply. Thank you Zeny, for your kind words - you spoke from your heart.

A special thank you is extended to Gary and Fran Ingram, for their thoughtfulness during our time of need. Thank you Gary for driving the church bus, to bring the residents of Cherington to the service. A very special thank you is extended to Pastor Chris, for his prayers and guidance during this past week. He gave us strength to make the memorial service a success. And, last but not least, a special thank you goes to Mervin's daughters Linda and Marilyn - who spent 16 hours on Thursday, putting the power point video together.

You can contact Eileen at ileanonu@eastlink.ca If anyone wishes a copy of the Power Point video, just ask. Interment of cremains at a later date.

- iii. IELEEN HORAN (daughter of Mervin James Horan and Alice Mary Syrette) was born on 25 Feb 1945 in Shellbrook, Saskatchewan. She married ROBERT E. ACHESON.

Notes for Orville Ralph Horan:
DEATH ANNOUNCEMENT OF ORVILLE RALPH HORAN...

Orville Ralph Horan of Prince Albert passed away suddenly on March 7th 2002, in the Intensive Care Unit at the Victoria Hospital, in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. The cause of death was listed as Septic Shock, due to double pneumonia. Orville was taken to hospital at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 6th 2002, by Brian Hewison (a third cousin) and passed away shortly after midnight, at 1:05 a.m.

Orville was born September 5th 1950 in Shellbrook, the seventh child born to Mervin James and Alice Mary Horan. He lived in the Shellbrook district, until his parents moved to Calgary in 1962. Orville was employed in the construction industry, until a tragic accident occurred on a job site in Edmonton in 1989 which curtailed his career. As a result of the accident, he spent many months in hospital and therapy. He was on permanent partial disability pension, through Worker's Compensation, until his sudden passing.

He enjoyed helping his brothers, Bruce and Mervin, with odd carpentry projects and painting in their homes. He especially enjoyed being with his sons, Matthew and David. Orville had many friends, whom he kept close contact with. He looked forward to fishing with his eldest brother Bruce, where the two of them could be found at Sturgeon or Angling Lakes. Orville will be sadly missed by all, who knew and loved him.

Orville is survived by his two sons: Matthew Bruce Horan (age 16), David Roy Horan (age 13) and the mother of his children, Debbie Lynn Cochrane; his siblings: Mervin (Eileen Brunner) Horan of Prince Albert, Ieleen (Bob) Atkinson of Lanark (Ontario), John (Viola nee Prevost) Horan of Langley (B.C.), Marlene Horan of Saskatoon, and Arnold (Janet nee Pilchar) Horan of Abbotsford (B.C.); his sister-in-law, Bettie Ida (nee Stene) Horan of Prince Albert; and numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Orville was predeceased by: his father, Mervin James Horan in 1969; his mother, Alice Mary (nee Syrette) Horan in 1992; his maternal grandmother, Cecile "Phena" Irene (nee Anderson) Syrette in 1921; his grandfather, Edward Syrette in 1973 and his step-grandmother, Myrtle Mary (nee Anderson) McKay-Syrette in 1953; his paternal grandparents, Joseph Martin Horan (c.1937) and Martha Marilda (nee Burton) in 1950; a sister, Darlene Maxine Horan (twin to Marlene) in 1949 who passed away as an infant; and, his eldest brother, Bruce James Horan in July 2001.

Funeral Arrangements are pending.

Addendum to Death Announcement:

Orville's Funeral was held in the River Park Memorial Chapel, in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. I picked up his cremains the following day and took them home.

The following Spring, as Executor of Orville's estate, I made arrangements with the Shellbrook Funeral Home for burial. I also had markers placed on the graves of other family members in the Cemetery. I attended at the Cemetery and buried Orville's ashes, with the only witness being the Funeral Home Director.

Orville was laid to rest beside his Mother {Alice Horan}, his sister Darlene Maxine Horan, his maternal grandmother Cecile Phena Irene Syrette, and alongside his great grandparents: Mary Ann Anderson & her second husband Walter James Anderson. Just southeast of this Anderson Plot, are the graves of his grandparents - Joe and Martha Horan, sites #305 & #306. They all rest in the Shellbrook Cemetery, west of the Village of Shellbrook, off Highway No.3.

Orville had nothing, when it came down to material things in life. He died with no estate, when it came to monetary evaluation he was a poor man.... but, he was a rich man when it came to friends. His door was always open to the "down and outers".... to the people who had nothing. Many of his friends were homeless people; others he met at Ala-Non meetings (which were held in Corrections and in the community).

His many friends came from Black Lake Reserve in the Far North, from British Columbia, from Alberta, from Manitoba, and from points throughout Saskatchewan during a blizzard - to pay their last respects to a man, and good friend, who had touched their lives.

Percy Ross, an aboriginal Deacon, officiated at Orville's funeral... He was one of Orville's friends and the Pastor at the Holy Trinity Church, which Orville faithfully attended each Sunday.

Brian Hewison, Orville's third cousin, was the eulogist. Brian spoke from his heart about Orville; it was a wonderful eulogy, from a man who had lost his best friend... nothing was written on paper.

One thing Percy Ross, the Deacon, (who is clinically blind) said stuck in my mind:

"To GRIEVE over the passing of a friend or family member, is to know that you were loved and know how to love others.... We are like flowers, we blossom out from a seed and spread our petals to show our beauty and worth... as we age, we start to wither... the seeds we have produced are spread so future generations can grow...and, continue the Cycle of Life. When our life is over, we return to the Mother Earth where we began...: but, what we have done during our lifetime remains behind... the good outweighs the bad..."

At his funeral, I pondered my own life. I am so busy and sometime have no time for others (so I think).... but, I am taking the time now. There are more things to life, than personal gain and personal satisfaction.

Do take time for yourself, my friends. Life is so short and it is gone before we realize...

for now,
Eileen

Hi everyone,

I was just reading Orville's death announcement; I wrote the Addendum after I buried his cremains in May 2002. It was a very emotional time for me and I forgot to include the notation that, the Indian and Metis Friendship Centre, in Prince Albert, prepared a luncheon for everyone after the Funeral Service.

Frank & Janet Carrier, good friends to Orville, made the arrangements and told me at the funeral home. Pastor Ross made the announcement following the service. The Friendship Centre would not let me contribute to the cost, as Orville was a member and very well thought of. Tables were set up to accomodate the many people, which was a blessing as close to 70 people came from out of Town to pay their respects.

It was an opportunity to share our grief, with others who loved Orville. Due to the weather, none of Orville's siblings could travel to Prince Albert. Only Mervin and his youngest sister, Marlene, were there as immediate family - besides myself, his sons, and close family friends. Our main concern, was for Orville's sons.

I didn't realize that Frank even knew Orville, before the funeral. I worked closely with Frank; and we were friends.

Take care,
Eileen

Thrice-Broken Nose Made Him a Gen. Washington Specialist: by Dick Kleiner: Being George Washington professionally is something of a responsibility for an actor. Howard St. John will play Washington for the third time on a big TV show on NBC's Our American Heritage, March 11, 1961. Because of his two previous portrayals, he has refused to accept a part in a Broadway play which would have let him star as the first President. "I turned it down," says St. John. "It would have painted a distorted picture of Washington - mean, bad-tempered, always sniffing with a cold. I don't think that's a true picture of the man." St John had not been a particularly avid student of Washington until he began playing the part. Since then he has done a tremendous amount of reading and is a mine of odd facts about the first President. For example: "He was a poor general. During the French and Indian War, he built a fort in the middle of a valley, surrounded by hills from which the French could bombard it. He would have mad a great basketball player. He was 6 feet 2 inches, and he had tremendous hands. He was the richest man in the Army. He started as a surveyor when he was 16, and he saved every penny he made and bought real estate." St John apparently can talk for hours about Washington, for he seems to retain everything he reads. He gives credit for getting the part to the fact that his nose was broken three times. He thinks those injuries helped form a noble nose which made some casting director think he'd make a credible Washington. This Washington specialist, although a native of Chicago was reared in Canada. As a boy, he was interested mostly in sports and the football and hockey careers account for the three nose breaks. His show business activities developed simultaneously. "I was one of those horrible things - a boy singer," he says. "I toured all over Canada. And I guess once you get a taste of applause, you like it, so I became an actor." His acting career, for some years, was broken up by spells of other businesses. For a time, because of his love for sports, he was in the sporting goods business. Once he quit the stage to be a stock broker. "I realized I was hooked," he says. "When I was in Wall St. and I'd get the morning paper and the first thing I'd turn to would be the drama section. "A stock broker who doesn't read the financial pages first doesn't belong on Wall St. I went back to acting." Over the years, he has had many good parts and has become established as one of the finest character actors in the business. But he finds playing George Washington as satisfying as anything he has done. There is one strange connection between Washington and St. John, "Feb. 22nd," he says, "was my mother's birthday, too. When she was alive, we always celebrated together. I've somehow felt a kinship with Washington because of that."

Mini-bio: A veteran theater performer from 1925, Chicago-born character actor Howard St John. excelled in blustery, unsympathetic roles; often pompous, often shifty and usually self-important. He made his Broadway debut with "Nocturne" (1925) and continued reliably into the 30's with parts in "Princess Charming" (1930), "Keeper of the Keys" (1932) and "Triumph" (1935). He grew in popularity with such theater hits as "Janie" (1942) and "The Late George Apley" (1946) and "Two Blind Mice" (1949). He took his patented gruffness and moved into films with the "B" movie Shockproof (1949) and continued in the same no-nonsense vein as various business tycoons or high-ranking military brass. Standout roles in his over 30 pictures include born Yesterday (1950) and One, Two, Three (1961). He played General Bullmoose in the musical "Li'l Abner" in 1956 and recreated his role on film three years later. St. John's numerous TV appearances would include the short-lived cop drama "The Investigator" (1958) as well as the short-lived sitcom "Hank" (1965). Towards the end of his career, he was seen as a foil on the "Honeymooners" musical sketches on "The Jackie Gleason Show" (1966). St. John died of a heart attack in New York City at age 68 in 1974 and was survived by his widow.

Generation 4 (con't)

Obituary

Leo O'Callaghan

Leo L. O'Callaghan of Sault Ste. Marie passed away at his home Friday Feb. 8, 2002. He was born Oct. 29, 1914 in Sault Ste. Marie. The son of Margaret and Frank O'Callaghan, he owned and operated Callaghan's Meat Market together with his father and brothers Tom O'Callaghan and Edward O'Callaghan, who preceded him in death, as well as Msgr. Oliver J. O'Callaghan.

He owned and operated the Mud Hut ceramic shop following his retirement.

Leo is survived by three daughters, Betty Ann (Frank) Suriano; Mary Jane (Howard) McCaffery and Jean Louise O'Callaghan and Thelma Mansfield, close friend and companion for over five years.

Leo was predeceased by his first wife and mother of his three daughters, Agnes in 1950, his second wife, Kathleen in 1972 and third wife, Lena in 1996.

Leo enjoyed the company of his eight grandchildren: Chari, Paul; Francine; Mark; John; Michelle; Gregory and Christopher and his 10 great-grandchildren: Michael; Steven; Joseph; Callaghan; Pierson; Tommy; Justine; Kevin; Jonathan and Bryan. Leo entertained his family and friends and especially his grandchildren with his wit and humor.

Leo was an avid duck hunter and fisherman and following his retirement from Callaghan's Market and sale of the Mud Hut, he enjoyed his vegetable and flower gardens.

Leo was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church, the Knights of Columbus and the Elks Lodge. A Mass will be celebrated for Leo today at 4 p.m. at Joseph Catholic Church. Visitation will begin at 2 p.m. at the church.

Final resting place will be at Riverside Cemetery

Memorials may be donated to the Hospice of Chippewa County, who cared for him compassionately in his last days.

Funeral arrangements are by Clark Bailey-Newhouse Funeral Home.

- iv. NORBERT JOSEPH LAUZON (son of Oswald Alexander Lauzon and Bertha Veronica Adams) was born in 1919 in Sudbury, Algoma District, Ontario, Canada. He died on

Generation 4 (con't)

15 Jul 1971 in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Notes for Norbert Joseph Lauzon:

Norbert Lauzon was born around 1918 in Sudbury Ontario, the fourth child of the family. He had a normal family childhood until the death of his mother May 22, 1932 . He was 14 at the time. Norbert was too young to leave home (like Oswald, June and Ann did) . The Lauzon children apparently did not adjust to the new stepmother, Freda Munson; who came to the home with her seven year old son, David Munson from her first marriage. Norbert remained with his father for a few years after the death of his mother in 1932, along with his twin sister Roberta and Mary Jane. Norbert stayed with his aunt Rose O'Leary in Adjala township for a while. After her death he went to Toronto where he stayed with his sister June. Norbert enrolled in the Canadian Army when he was eligible. He served with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps overseas.

LAND PETITIONS & TRANSACTIONS

STEPS TO OBTAINING A LAND PATENT

Prior to getting her land grant Mary Horan would have had to go through the following process.

1. Settler submitted a petition to the Lieutenant Governor, often with a Oath of Allegiance.
2. Clerk of the Executive Council authorized a Order in Council, authorizing the land grant, which was presented to the Surveyor General's office.
3. Surveyor General issued a Ticket of Location, including settlement duties.
4. Settlement duties would be something along the lines of;
 - clear half width of all concession roads bounding the land
 - clear and fence three acres of land
 - build a dwelling of a specified minimum size say sixteen by twenty feet.
4. When settlement duties were complete the settler prepared a Affidavit.
5. Upon payment of fees, a Receipt from the Receiver General was presented to the Attorney General's office.
6. After receipt of the above mentioned receipt, the Attorney General issued his FIAT authorizing the preparation of a surveyor's description of the grant.
7. The Patent was then signed off by the Lieutenant Governor.

This system was designed to discourage land speculators. A cursory investigation would be conducted to ensure people were not putting in multiple claims. Bear in mind that the land that Mary Horan received was considered waste land. These Waste lands would be very hilly and or part swamp with possibly no good stands of timber; and by its very nature an impediment to farming. There was other land set aside as Clergy Reserve. The sale of these clergy reserve lands went to the support of schools that were run by the Anglican Church till 1855. This is prior to the public school system being set up. United Empire Loyalists who supported the Crown during the War of Independence, and lost their lands in the United States were also entitled to land as compensation for their losses. Also retiring British Army Officers and Enlisted Men would be able to obtain land grants for their service.

The first years in Albion Township were tough ones for Mary and her children. The first couple of winters several of them could not leave their cabin because they had no winter clothes to wear. John learnt how to use a gun and hunt from some of the natives that still passed through the area thus supplementing their steady diet of potatoes. Mary was forced to send the following letter to the wife of the Lieutenant Governor.

Mary Horan
Albion July 19th 1831.

Mary eventually remarried to a man named Simon Scully who was himself a widower. Little is known about Mary's second husband other than he had a farm at the top of the 4th line of Albion Township. According to Ester Heyes, (The Story of Albion, 1965), the Scullys were very successful tobacco merchants in Toronto. Simon died about 1856.

The Horan Family

This is a very important document because it concerns the sale of Mary Minnock's land in Albion Township five years after her death in Sydenham Township, Grey County, Ontario. All parties signed off on the deal. The only children who were not on the list was Mary Horan, Mrs Thomas Higgins who was deceased as of 1851 and James Horan who lived up in Sydenham Township, Grey County with the other Horans. Why he is not mentioned is a bit of a mystery. He originally lived in the Ottawa area and came to Albion later then the rest. The spelling of Horan as Horne is immaterial. All these Horans could nether read or write and were at the mercy of the writer as to how their names were spelt in any official documents. Because women had no rights in those days their husbands had to sign off with them.

Notes for researching in Albion Township

The area that was Albion Township, (Township) was purchased from the Mississauga Indians in 1818 and was surveyed and ready for settlement in 1819. The first settler in Albion was William Downey Lot 18, 8th Con (near Castlederg). Albion Township was originally part of the Home district. Later was part of York County. From 1851 to 1867 there was the entity called the "United Counties of York and Peel". Peel County was split off from York in 1867. Albion was in the north east of Peel County, bordered by Caledon Township and Chinguacousy Townships to the west and Toronto Gore Township to the south. The bordering Counties were Simcoe County to the north, with Adjala and Tecumseth Townships bordering Albion. And York County, King Township to the east. Census records for the Horans in Albion and Adjala Townships from 1871-1901 can be found under Cardwell (County). Cardwell which was never a county per say but rather made for political purposes and didn't interfere with the workings of the Counties to which the townships comprising Cardwell belonged. Cardwell was made up of Mono, Albion, Adjala and Caledon. Albion today is part of the Town of Caledon, Region of Peel . As well as the Region of Peel Archives in Brampton, you can find a lot of reference material in the York Region Archives, North York and the Ontario Archives at the York University in Toronto. -Leo McD

St. John's R.C. parish records corrections and additions by Basil Horan, 1994

Pioneer Horan (Lockton)

Amongst the founders and later adherents of this church, (St John's RC, Albion), none played a more important part than this Horan connection. Because of their numerical strength and extensive land holdings within the parish, they have ever been a bulwark of congregational attendance and financial support. Traced to their beginning, so far as affecting Albion is concerned, we may commence with the death of one William Horan who was killed by dynamite while working on the Rideau Canal in 1808 (a). He left a widow (formerly Mary Minnock) and seven of a family, four sons and three daughters. This widow and family were granted land in 1809/10 on the 11th line of Albion, Lot 24, Conc. 11 - North east corner of 11th line,(b) They later (1824) moved to East half lot 26, Conc. 4 Albion (5th line and 25 sideroad corner) to which farm one son, William, had acquired Crown Deed at York prior to arrival here (c)(actual deed to property received in 1845). A rude shelter of browse served as shelter while a cabin was being constructed.

It is quite apparent that William played the leading role in this family drama, although it would appear that James was the eldest. All lived together for a time. The mother remarried Simon Scully whose land was at the extreme north east point of the township where Peel, York, and Simcoe counties meet or to state it more exact, the townships of Albion, King and Tecumseth (d). Its geographical situation was accordingly such that Scully's farm had the uncommon acreage of one hundred and forty.

It likewise appears that at the time of the mother's remarriage, the daughters at least were still residing with Wm. on his farm. In brief time, however, we find marriages and a consequent dispersal of the family, Wm. clinging staunchly to his Albion farm and bringing home a bride.

We now state marriages with explanatory remarks.

1. James ~m. Mary Ann Fowler of Albion
This couple moved to what was known as the Irish Block, near Owen Sound. Issues: William, Michael, John, Thomas, Mary
2. William (1794-1897)m. Honora Shore of Albion (family tree given below)
3. Michael m. Marie Donohue
4. John moved with others to Irish Block and married a girl of that district. This couple moved to the Irish Block. Prior to that he was somewhat of a rambler, having absolutely no taste for farming, and rarely seen without his beloved gun. He was a crack marksman. Apparently he even sought to use the weapon on behalf of Mackenzie. Following the ill-fated rebellion, law officials were appointed in Bolton for the purpose of depriving Mackenzie sympathizers in Albion of firearms. This movement was not so senseless as appears when one considers that Mackenzie was massing an army on the Niagara composed of a lower element from American city slums to attack Canada under promise of land grants for service and from safety of borderline was urging Canadians to likewise join him in his patriot's war. Bolton officials visited the Horan homestead where John was stopping with his brother William and demanded his gun. John seized the weapon and told them he would give them the lead in it instead of the gun itself. They retreated.

Following one prolonged absence from Albion, he returned bearing a large piece of quartz. He had been to Toronto first and stated that one man to whom he showed the curious rock had offered him fifty dollars for it provided he would tell where he procured it. He seemed to have little knowledge of the quartz beyond a fixed idea that there was mineral wealth from whence it came. He wanted others to join him for a return trip and described location. Wm. paid scant attention to this tale of an adventurous brother. It was alright to relate as a story in later years. The first Sudbury boom revived this story. Roughly that district coincided with the quartz location described by John Horan in a distant past. There is a strong possibility that this rambling Irish adventurer of Albion was the first man to dimly realize the mineral possibilities of what was then the Far North.

Leo McD

4. Marie, m. Edward O'Reilly of Tecumseth His father owned the two hundred acres on a portion of which set the Tecumseth R.C.Church (St. Margaret of Scotland, Tuam).

5. Ann, m. Michael Traynor This couple moved to the Irish Block. His father had taken Crown Deed to E. half lot 29, conc. 4 (5th line).

7. Mary, m. Thomas Higgins -moved to Irish Block (Actually Thomas and Mary moved to Toronto where Mary died in 1851. She was interned in St Paul's Cemetery. This family was mostly disipated by 1871 to parts unknown)-Leo McD

From above outline we can readily perceive that with one exception, the original Horan emigrant family are of small moment in Albion history. That one exception is of course the one who took the Crown Deed and remained in the township.

Wm. Horan procured his bride from E. half lot 25, conc. 6 (7th line) a distance of two and one half miles from his home. She was a sister of Pioneer Bob Shore (Crown Deed -property still in possession of descendants) Bob Shore conveyed the couple by ox-sled to the Gore R.C Church for their marriage. They form a striking illustration of what one pioneer couple could do toward national development or the support of any religious organization. Let us follow to the third generation only and we can form some idea of how rapidly the descendents of such branch out. To follow beyond that third generation is impossible to any degree of accuracy for already numerous branches of the family are lost to Albion knowledge in the far flung expanse of territory in Ontario, western Canada and the U.S.A. The ones remaining in Albion are, of course, traceable to present. We append by sex and order accordingly, with marriage mention.

Origin and date of the following is unknown.

The Horan Family

In 1793, when Ireland was swept by the famine and plague, William Horan emigrated to Canada, Clounshaney Kings County, with his wife, Mary Minnock. Soon after their arrival, William got a job on the Rideau Canal but what seemed to be a stroke of luck became tragedy. Along with four of his fellow workers, in 1808, he was killed in a "rock cut" (dynamite) and his family was left in a strange country without a breadwinner. The five men were buried in a field beside the road between Newboro and Westport and a headstone was erected by the Government and a record of their names and details of the fatal accident. As indemnity for the death of her husband, the crown granted to Mary Horan the farm on the 11 th line of Albion, near Hwy. #9 now owned by the Robinsons, themselves an old pioneer family. The young widow was provided with a guide by the government to direct her to her new home. She had 4 sons and 3 daughters, all born in Canada. The farm was still hers in 1859, - sold it to a family in the old country named Higgins for 20. pounds. A second grant was secured for her son William comprising of 200 acres being the East half of lots 26 and 27, fourth concession of Albion -fifth line.

Mary Horan married for a second time. Her husband was a man named Scully, who had settled on the farm now owned by Darius Coffey. She was Granny Scully to everyone and lived to a ripe old age. One of her stepsons embarked on a flourishing tobacco business in Toronto. The two younger Horan boys abandoned the farm to pursue a life of trapping and hunting. One settled in the "Irish Block" east of Owen Sound. William married a daughter of the H. Shore family, the wedding taking place at Wildfield and settled down on the old homestead. Oldtimers who still remember him, describe William as a gigantic fellow of great strength. He was the father of fifteen children, nine sons and six daughters. They were William, James, Michael, Henry, John, Martin, Patrick, Tom, Frank, Mary, Bridget, Annie, Maggie and twins Honora and Sarah. Their descendents today are heavy landowners in the Lockton area. On the fourth line alone, more than one thousand acres are owned by Horans.

The first Catholic Mission Church was built at Lockton in 1 834 and replaced by a larger one in 1847 at Centreville. Mike Dwyer donated the land for the church and the project was aided by the Wallaces, Malloys, Quinns and the Locks.

William Horan (Born 1794, died 1897) lived to an age of one hundred and three. Frank, Tom, and Maggie remained on the farm after the death of their father. After Tom and Maggie died, Frank who had been willed the farm by his father, deeded it to his nephew, Bill (Blue Bill), in return for "his keep" for the remainder of his life - a total of four months -Feb. 1931 to May 29, 1931. Bill, the eldest son of Martin Horan, still resides on the homestead. He is the father of William (Michael), (John) Clarence, (Martin) Bert, Wilfred, Cecil, Norval, Aloise, Gelita, and Colona. Bill's wife was Irene Horan before her marriage, which brings to the fore an interesting fact. Some time after the first Horans came to Albion, two other families of Horans arrived, all unrelated. The three groups became known as the "Big Irish Horans, the "Adjala" Horans and the "Yankee" Horans.

Irene's mother was also a Horan (Michael's daughter "Lizzy") and her father was an Adjala Horan, John. (They lived at Athlone) They lived there as he carried the mail on a Rural Route out of Bally Croy. They had 8 daughters and 4 sons-all departed but 2 - Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Calhoun.

In the history of sport was the Horan Football Club which flourished in Lockton from 1916 to 1923, with one exception alt were Horans. The brothers Frank (shot put) and farmer Joe Horan, nephews of the renowned Frank seemed unbeatable in weight competitions. At the old time picnics, barn raisings and bees, tugs-o'-war provided highlights of community interest. In Albion, the Horans were among the stalwarts who pulled for the glory of the township.

Notes

I dispute the emigration date of 1808. In 1808, the area that made up Albion Township still belonged to the Missisauga Indians till purchased in 1818. Albion was surveyed 1818-1820 and was ready for settlers in 1819. There are no land grants prior to this date. The Rideau Canal was constructed between 1826-1831. It was constructed in response to the American strategy in the War of 1812 of cutting Upper Canada in half by controlling the St Lawrence and the Great Lakes. There was no construction prior to 1826. If William Horan and his brother John were born in 1795 and 1812 respectively it's unlikely they would have been tramping around the wilds of Upper Canada in 1809 looking for suitable land to settle-Leo McD

William Perkins Bull Fonds, Pages 3067-3070 Circa 1932
(Original records at the Region of Peel Archives, Brampton)

Mr. Michael Horan (1) came out to Quebec with his family sometime in the first quarter of the 19th century. It is unlikely that any settlers could have got into the northern part of Peel County before the new survey in 1819, but the family tradition of the Horans coming to us through the story of Michael Horan's grandson says their family did. "They came in one family straight from Ireland to Quebec, where owing to an epidemic of Cholera, their father died, (Mr. Michael Horan) about 1810". The 4 boys and 3 girls and their mother managed to get from Quebec to York by means of Canoe and walking over portages as best they could. Mr. William Horan (2) (Patrick Horan's father (3), and his brothers walking from Toronto through Tobycoc (Etobicoke) and the Gore in the spring season and found nothing but ponds and croaking frogs. Then coming to Lockton they found it was higher and drier so they settled here in the spring of 1810 or 1811.

Their first domicile was an upturned root of a tree, but soon their house was built of logs, with hemlock brush, tied with leatherwood bark for roofs and doors. There were no windows. Gradually they cleared the land and started planting.

To finance the buying of this farm, William Horan worked all his spare time at the Lockport Canal (4) and later on the Welland Canal (5) and things were very difficult at first.

William Horan shaved with a boiled potato, using a razor bought from Ireland.

William Horan tramped to Newmarket over a blazed trail and brought home the first plough in the district. It was twice the weight of a plough of today and naturally a very awkward burden. Every once in a while the tip of it would strike a tree and give Mr. Horan a bang on the head, and one can easily imagine his hazards in crossing many a little stream on the single log of wood that served as a bridge. He and his neighbours thought nothing of a tramp way down into the Gore to give a man a day's logging.

Woman would carry pails of produce on their heads and knit as they walked along. An old Miss Farrickson famous as a knitter stopped to talk to William Horan one day when he was working in the fields. She was knitting all the while she talked and was still knitting when she strode off on her way to Tullamore for a bag of flour. He saw her on her return, a bag of flour slung across her shoulders, needles busily clicking. They say she never stopped knitting except to sleep. Mrs. Real used to walk to the Gore then on to Toronto, and knit three pairs of socks on the road.

The first shanty on the way down was Mick Dwyer's (6) and the second was at Murray's, with nothing else until one reached Toronto so that was a very lonely trip. The woods in those days were haunted by wolves.

Sometimes in their flight from these savage animals the settlers were obliged to drop what they were carrying as they took to their heels. Mr. William Horan used to speak with particular regret of a bottle of whiskey he once lost in this way.

It was not only on the roads that there was danger of wild animals. They penetrated the little clearings also. William Horan had just bought his first little pig in Newmarket, bought it home and placed it in the pen he had built for it. Before morning he heard a rumpus, dashed out and found a bear in the act of getting the pig out of the pen. His dog made a jump for the bear, and he joined in the chase, but the bear was soon at the fence and dropped the pig over in the bush, lumbered after it, and had what was probably his first meal of pork. Without firearms it was useless to follow.

Though putting the date of their arrival a little later and at a date which corresponds better with the general records of the first settlement in the township.

(2) William Horan 1804-1897 Born Kings County Ireland, emigrated to Upper Canada 1823 along with his family. Married Honora Shore 1832. 16 children, died Albion Township, buried St John's RC Cemetery Albion Township, (now Town of Caledon).

(3) Patrick Horan 1849-1938 Born Albion Township, married Mary Coffee, 5 children.

(4) The Erie Canal at Lockport

The construction of the Erie Canal was authorized by the New York State Legislature in April 1816. The route proposed by surveyors was to traverse an area in central Niagara County, NY, which was then "uncivilized" and free of White settlers. At the time, the nearest settlers were located in nearby Cold Springs, NY. As it became known where the proposed canal was to be built, land speculators began to buy large plots along and near the proposed route of the canal. By December 1820, when the exact location of the step locks had been determined, the whole area of what would eventually become Lockport was owned by only fifteen men, many of whom were Quakers.

The canal reached Lockport in 1824, but the locks were not completed until 1825. By 1829, Lockport had become an established village. The community was centered around the locks, and consisted mainly of immigrant Scottish and Irish canal workers, brought in as labor. The workers remained in Lockport after the completion of the locks, giving the city a heavy Celtic influence still discernible today, especially in the neighborhoods of Lowertown and North Lockport.

(5) The Welland Canal

The Welland Canal is a ship canal that runs 42 km (27.0 miles) from Port Colborne, Ontario on Lake Erie to Port Weller, Ontario on Lake Ontario. As part of the St. Lawrence Seaway, the canal allows ships to avoid Niagara Falls by traversing the Niagara Escarpment.

William Perkins Bull was a Canadian Lawyer and Historian. He sent out questionnaires to the children and grandchildren of Peel County settlers regarding their families. In this case he was gathering information for "MacDonnell to McGuigan". This form was filled out by Willy Horan or "Nish" Horan, both who were sons of Patrick Horan.

Letter to William Perkins Bull circa 1932

Albion Ont. Jan 17th
Mr Perkins Bull, K.C.

Please excuse us for not answering your letter before as it came just at a very busy time at Xmas and was forgotten. Mr. Patrick Horan's grandfather was one of the first settlers in Locton, and as Mr. P. Horan is over 80 years of age it is difficult for him to remember many things, as we are writing all we can find that will interest you.

1. Cannot trace where first cows were obtained.
2. Country was well settled before horses and sheep came.
3. Only oxen could be used at first.
4. The first pig was a suckling pig bought from the Newmarket District, Ontario, and this was stolen by a bear from a pen outside the house. Mr Horan was in bed one night but hearing the barking of their little dog, went out, carrying a lighted bark torch, discovering the bear was making off with their only pig. He followed it over the fence and down to the edge of the swamp but having no gun he could not scare away the bear, so that ended the first pig. Of course others were obtained from the same place later.
5. The first implement was an axe, brought in Quebec on landing. This was sharpened by wetting and rubbing on a flat field stone. The first hoe was made by a blacksmith at Newmarket, the only implement used until ground became clear enough to use a plough. The first plough was bought at Newmarket and carried home on shoulder, crossing creeks and over fallen trees a distance of 35 miles. The first harrow was made by themselves of poles placed Y shape. The Newmarket blacksmith made 1½ inch square- pins 10 inches long to fit on cross-bar of poles, put in at a slant to go over roots. These were the only implements used with exception for a wooden sleigh made by themselves to draw in crops and for hauling wood.
6. They came in one family straight from Ireland to Quebec, where, owing to an epidemic of cholera their father died, (Mr. Michael Horan) about the year 1810. The four boys, three girls and their mother managed to get from Quebec to York by means of canoes and walking over Portages as best they could. Mr

William Horan, (Patrick Horan's father) & brother walked from Toronto through Tobico, (Etobicoke) and the Gore (Toronto Gore Township, south of Albion), in the spring season and found nothing but ponds and croaking frogs then coming to Lockton they found it was higher and drier, as they settled there in the spring of either 1810 or 1811. Their house was built of logs with Hemlock brush tied with leatherwood bark for roof and doors. There were no windows. A big fire was made on the ground with a hole in the roof to let out smoke. Torches were used for lighting. A small patch of land was cleared each year, cutting trees with an axe into 10 ft. lengths & rolled into piles with a hand spike to burn. On this patch potatoes were planted & the next season wheat was grown and a new patch cleared. They had to walk to Toronto (30 miles for flour & provisions and carry them home on their backs, until a grist mill was erected in Burrow's hollow. Some years later a trail was blazed, and an ox saddled with 2 bags tied together on it back was driven to Toronto. Bags filled with groceries & the return journey made, taking one day to go starting before daybreak and the next night saw them home again. In course of time each settler cleared a certain distance to make a road then the ox was hitched to a sleigh & this served for many years as transport to and from Toronto before a wagon could be used on account of stumps. To finance this, he worked all his spare time at the Lockport Canal & years later on the Welland Canal. It was 15 years before horses could be used. One neighbour was settled at Murray Hill, another about 1 ½ miles south of Lockton and a third at Weston. The principal food was potatoes obtained from one or another of these families if not available then wheat was bought and boiled. To get a supply of water, a tree was cut and scooped to make a trough, then packed with snow and placed near a fire at the end of the cabin. There were no pails. The nearest neighbour was Mr Michael Dwyer and Mr Horan used to walk there every Saturday night and Mrs Dwyer would bake some cakes of meal for him to take back. Their first fire was obtained by cutting a cedar torch about 4 feet long. This was lit at the neighbours and carried home to his cabin where he lit his own fire which was never allowed to go out afterwards. He shaved with a boiled potato and a razor brought over from Ireland. Lockton received it's name from a man named Lock who later came to keep a store. The workday was from daybreak to sundown.

Except from "The Northern Men"

"However, it is the Horans who give northern Albion its particular character. This Catholic family retains, to an extraordinary degree, the manners, customs, and even the soft Irish speech of the land from which its forbears migrated a century and more ago.

Roughly, the Horans may be divided into the "Big" Horans, who were mostly Reformers, and the "Little" Horans, who took the Conservative side. This distinction, however, is becoming somewhat blurred by reason of intermarriage and such other causes and events as naturally occur in the process of time. There are also the "Adjala" Horans, and a few other Horan families.

The "Big" Horans, who came first, multiplied exceedingly and still are the most numerous. Their early history is one of bitter ill fortune. In 1823 Michael Horan and Mary Minnock⁽⁴⁶⁾ of King's county, with their "6 children (two boys and 3 girls)"⁽⁴⁷⁾ emigrated in a "pestilence-ridden ship".⁽⁴⁸⁾ Arriving at York on 9th November, 1824, Mary Horan, petitioning for land, stated that her husband died on the way up from Montreal, and that she had "friends in one of the new townships who would assist her in clearing some land". She signed "Her Mary x Horan Mark." "The Committee" recommended two hundred acres for "the support of her family, the grant ... [to] be confirmed to the eldest surviving son of twenty-one, in Trust for the Petitioner during life."⁽⁴⁹⁾

William⁽⁵⁰⁾ left his mother and the other children in York, and set out to do settlement duty on his land grant in Albion.⁽⁵¹⁾ Michael Dwyer, with his wonted hospitality, gave the boy bed and board until he ran up a little bark-roofed log cabin of his own. Flat stones made a hearth, and a hole in the roof let the smoke out. There was a door but no window; light was furnished by cedar torches.⁽⁵²⁾

John⁽⁵³⁾ soon joined his brother, and they felled a few trees and cleared away the brushwood; then, after planting a patch of potatoes, they sent to York for their mother and sisters.⁽⁵⁴⁾ The whole family passed a trying winter huddled around the big fire-place; their only food was potatoes. William and John cut logs to sell for lumber and for building; stumps and shaky butts were made into firewood, but the widow and her other children had no warm clothes and so could not venture out of doors till winter was over.⁽⁵⁵⁾

Spring came at last, and the whole family started in to help clear more land, the elder boys still wielding axes and the other children piling and burning brush, rolling away stones and making ready to plant corn and potatoes. The Indians taught John to hunt, to shoot and to fish, so before long the hard-working widow Horan and her family had a varied bill of fare. When twenty-three, William, petitioning for his land title, signed William X Horan "His Mark"

In 1828 the Council granted William two hundred acres in trust for the support of his mother, and under the "particular circumstances" His Excellency remitted the fees on this grant.⁽⁴⁹⁾ At last, when William had scraped together enough to buy a yoke of oxen, the tide definitely turned. A little later he bought a lumber wagon; meantime his grain was carried to the mill on the oxen's backs. The hardest years over and the family suitable settled, William turned his attention to founding a family of his own. He married a Protestant maiden, Honorah,⁽⁵⁶⁾ daughter of Henry Shore⁽⁵⁷⁾ of County Kilkenny, and niece of the Orangeman who was fined five shillings for beating up John Collins, his Catholic neighbour. William and Honorah raised fifteen children.⁽⁵⁸⁾

Had some of the offspring of the prolific Horans not moved to other parts, in a generation or two the family doubtless would have peopled and owned the township. It was the resourceful William who used a boiled potato to soften his beard and facilitate his Sunday morning shave with the razor he brought from Ireland. Surrounded by children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, keeping open house for every wayfarer, and known to the country-side as "Pappy", William Horan, good son of the Church that he was, lived to be 102. Genial, free-handed, hospitable, witty, loyal and courageous, his descendants "took after him". They were ever ready for a fight or a frolic among themselves; but it was said that :if you fight one Horan you will have to fight 'em all". At every gathering, whether dance, wake, wedding or bee, there was sure to be a collection of Horans. Their Irish humour and imagination expressed itself in tall stories, and there are more wild, weird tales of wildcats, wolves and bears afloat in Albion than in all the rest of the county. Such the Horans were and such they are to this day, a friendly, whimsical and delightful folk.

The "Little" or "Yankee" Horans are of as pure Irish Catholic stock as their kinsfolk. Denis Horan⁽⁵⁹⁾ of King's county did not emigrate to Albion until about 1845. He, his sister Katherine, and her husband John Gilmore,⁽⁶⁰⁾ came via Rochester. Denis rented Pat Grogan's⁽⁶¹⁾ farm and married Martin Carroll's⁽⁶²⁾ daughter Katherine. Later, from his father-in-law, he ought fifty acres on which he lived until his death. His descendants intermarried with the "Big" Horans, the "Adjala" Horans, and other offshoots of the clan who emigrated at different times. No stranger would go far wrong in addressing anyone he chanced to meet in the district as Mr., Mrs., or Miss Horan.

All the Horans delighted in politics. Every election was a sporting event, and any ruse to get the better of the other fellow was permissible. Denis's nephew Jimmie Gilmore, a "Little" Horan and therefore a Conservative, was a butcher in Tory Palgrave. He sold out and went to farming and droving at Lockton, the heart of local Whiggery. On election day a Grit scrutineer, determined that no Tory should vote in his subdivision, had Jimmie disqualified because of his American birth.

The tale travelled in haste to Palgrave, and the Conservatives plotted revenge. It happened that there were two "Big" Horans named Eugene. One⁽⁶³⁾ had moved to Western Canada; the other, Jimmie Gilmore's brother-in-law, was generally known as "Owney".⁽⁶⁴⁾ The guileful Tories persuaded a somewhat easy-going Liberal scrutineer that the Eugene Horan on the voters' list was the man who had moved to the West, and, too late, "Owney" discovered that his name had been stricken from the roll. "

Excerpt from "The Story of Albion" Ester B. Heyes

THE INTREPID ONES

Surely the most intrepid of all the early settlers in Albion was the newly-widowed Mary Horan. In 1793 William Horan and his wife Mary Minnock set sail for Canada from Clounshaney, Kings County, Ireland. His brothers waved goodbyes from the dockside and followed them later. Their four sons and two daughters were all born in Canada.(1) Cholera raged in the sailing vessel throughout the two month voyage, but miraculously, the Horans survived. After they landed in Canada, however, what seemed to be a stroke of good fortune turned out to be tragedy. William was jubilant when he got work on the new Rideau Canal,(2) and the family was housed on what is now Parliament Hill in Ottawa in one of the huts erected to shelter Irish immigrants employed on the canal. His wages -only a few pennies a day- spelled munificence to the Horans, fresh from Ireland where the poor had no pennies, and were dying like flies from hunger.

Irish laborers came to their jobs on the Rideau canal totally ignorant of how to handle dynamite, and fatalities were many. Along with four fellow workers William Horan was killed by a "rock cut" in 1808, (3) and his wife and children, bereft of their breadwinner, keened for him in the midst of strangers. The five men were buried beside the road between Newboro and Eastport, and the Government erected a headstone inscribed with names and details of the accident. While summer traveling through the beautiful Rideau Lakes region more than one Albion resident has pulled his car off Highway 42 to decipher the time-blurred lettering which records the too early death of "William Horan, (4) late of Clounshaney, King's County, Ireland."

As indemnity for the death of her husband the Crown granted to Mary Horan two hundred acres in Albion, (5)comprising "broken" lot 24, Concession 11, and west half of lot 28, Concession 6.. The Government sent a guide to direct the family to their property in the Ridges, and well they might It was set in the midst of a storm-swept wilderness close to the highest point in the Township. This was between 1809 and 1810. Cold weather was setting in, and the Horan boys erected a crude log shanty. Cedar torches lighted the windowless interior, and it was warmed by a fire laid on the earthen floor and confined with flat stones standing on edge. There was no chimney, but at least some of the smoke escaped through a hole in the bark roof. That first winter, mealtime in the Horan cabin meant - as it did in the log shanties of most early Albion settlers - placing a wooden hoop on the table along with a dish of salt. Into the hoop's capacious circle a huge pot of mealy Albion potatoes was un ended. It was welcome fare for Irish folk who remembered too well the pangs of hunger they suffered in the old land.

A letter dated January, 1817,(6)preserved in the Dominion Archives in Ottawa, is a hundred and thirty three year old reminder of the Horans' first grim winter in Albion. Mis-spelled but eloquent in its appeal, it was written by someone other than Mary Horan, although it bears her name.

The historic letter was addressed to Lady "Serah" Maitland, wife of Sir Peregrine Maitland, Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada. It reads, "May it please your Iadiship your petitioner is very poor and is now living in Albion and is destitute of cloathing for herself and children at this inclement season of the year. She therefore begs the liberty of making her distress known to your Ladiship hoping to find favor in yr. Ladiship's kind and charitable disposition by extending her yr. usual support to the distressed." There is no record of any response to the petition, with its pathetic touches of hard-to-resist Irish blarney. We can only hope that Lady "Serah" did have "a kind and charitable disposition" and that she did extend to the worthy Widow Horan her "usual support to the distressed. To leap ahead of our story a few years the comely Mary did not remain too long a lonely widow. Simon Scully came a counting to the Ridges all the way from the homestead he had patented in the Township, being east half of lot 10, Concession 3. She became the beloved "Granny Scully" of early Albion legend, living in modest comfort to a great old age. One of her stepsons brought a measure of wealth to the Scullys by operating a flourishing tobacco business in Toronto for many years. The family did not grow rich on Albion customers, however. When old neighbors dropped into his business premises in the City young Scully gave them their winter's supply of tobacco at bargain prices. Granny Scully retained her grant of land in the Ridges at least until after 1859, the year Tremaine's Map of the County of Peel was published. It is shown there under the name, "Mrs. M. Scully. John, the second son who had emigrated with the Horan family, soon abandoned farming. The Indians had imbued him with a love of woodcraft. They imparted their skills to the friendly pale-face, and it was not long before he became something of an Irish version of the French coureur de bois, happily pursuing a life of hunting and trapping. When Mary Horan's eldest son, William, turned his thoughts to marrying, he patented two hundred acres in Albion, being east half of lots 26 and 27, Concession 4. A Roman Catholic, he had fallen in love with Protestant Hanorah Shore, daughter of James Shore (7). The couple set off in fine style behind a yoke of oxen to exchange marriage vows at Wildfield, where the nearest Roman Catholic priest was located. Affectionately called 'Pappy' by everyone, William lived to be one hundred and four years old, and there are old-timers in Albion who still remember him as "a gigantic fellow." A man of prodigious strength, he carried his first plow on his back all the way from Newmarket to his farm in the hills of Albion.

William and Hanorah Horan were the parents of fifteen children, nine sons and six daughters. It was a time of early marriages and large families - the bigger the better. James, the eldest, remained unmarried, but the next five children proudly presented William and Hanorah with forty-three grandchildren. After that history seems to have lost count. It was a present day bearer of the name who, with true Horan wit, replied to a question put to by the author of this book, "How many Horans are there in the Township?" Well now, I wouldn't rightly know. But look out of any window in Albion and you're sure to see one."

When Lockton was a thriving little hamlet on the Fourth Line and Twenty-five Side Road which might well have been called "Horantown," R.W. Burrell decided it was a good place in which to start his newly-married son, Bill, in a general store. The little bride from St. Catharines, who helped her husband to serve customers, came to her father-in-law one day close to tears. "These people are so strange to me," she wailed, "I can't even call them by name." The senior Mr. Burrell chuckled, "Just call them all Mr., Mrs. or Miss Horan and you'll be right nine times out of ten," he advised.

The first William Horan bequeathed to his descendants his stature and his strength. All nine of his sons were six feet and over. Frank was dubbed "the strong man of Albion." When he was clearing his farm he would come along and lift into the stoneboat, unaided, boulders which three of his helpers together were struggling to remove. It was a Horan who was challenged one day by a tavern-keeper helping to unload barrels of whiskey into the hotel. "If you can carry one of these inside it's yours," promised the proprietor, as he struggled, along with two other men, to shift a heavy cask. Young Horan hoisted a barrel, inch by inch to his shoulder, and was well on his way to unloading it in the tavern when the challenger reneged on his bargain. "I was joking," he laughed weakly. At that point the Horan lad saw no point in completing his part of the wager, and dropped the barrel of whisky at the tavern-keeper feet with a resounding crash and a mighty splash.

The first William's grandson and namesake, Bill Horan is the present owner of "Pappy" Horan's fine old homestead on the Fourth Concession. A small acreage has been sold off the original property to Arnold and Violet Warren, a husband and wife team of aeroplane experts who flew commercially and privately over most of the world before alighting in Albion to write of their knowledge and experience. Their many-windowed house is built on a hill so high a car balks at going all the way and the last lap of the upward journey must be completed on foot through the cedars. "Our milliondollar view makes the climb well worth while," says the Warrens who were "air-borne" too long to ever be happy living in a valley.

Bill Horan's wife, Irene, was also born a Horan, which brings to the fore an interesting bit of early Albion history. Around the year 1845 two more families named Horan moved into the area. The three unrelated groups became known as the Big Horans, and Adjala Horans and the Yankee, or Little Horans. At first there was little love lost among them. The Three factions determinedly maintained their separate entities even when it meant a merry old knock-down free-for-all, a highly popular pastime of the early days, which did much to keep Albion lively. But as time went on, romance, helped along no doubt by propinquity, changed the picture. Inter-marriages among all three families soon blurred and finally erased all lines of demarcation. John Francis Horan, grandson of William, served in Albion Council with distinction for fifteen years. Like the Downeys, the Horans had their own football team. Going strong around Locktown from 1916 to 1923, it was made up of brothers, cousins, uncles, and nephews, a harmonious blending of the three early factions. Horans on the team were James H, William Vincent, Dennis Joseph, William Michael, Patrick Jr., John Cyril, James McSpirritt, Michael Sr., John, Harold, Leighton and Ignatius.

The Horan Family

Of "Pappy" Horan's fifteen children, four stayed single, Ten settled on the 4th and 5th lines within 10 lots. Marriages of the remaining eleven linked the Horans with families of such early settlers as the Donohues, Grogans, Murphys, Dohertys, Hayes, Farrels, Minnochs. Higgins, Kellys, Walshes and Callaghans. Succeeding generations intermarried with Finnertys, Haffeys, Wallaces, Sullivans, McCaffreys, Eagans, Carrols, Gilmores and many many others. There can be few old Roman Catholic families in Albion without a "Horan" perched in their family tree.

(See the commentary on the next page)

Some of the problems I have with this narrative are as follows;

- 1. Census records show that all of Michael Horan and Mary Minnock's children were born in Ireland, William Horan's grave marker in St John's Cemetery states that he was born in Ireland in 1795.*
- 2. The Rideau Canal was constructed between 1826-1831. It was constructed in response to the American strategy in the War of 1812 of cutting Upper Canada in half by controlling the St Lawrence and the Great Lakes.*
- 3. I was unable to find any such monument. There was a monument of persons who died constructing the Canal in a Anglican cemetery at Westport though no names were visible.*
- 4. Our ancestor was Michael not William, There was another Michael Horan who came over with the Peter Robinson settlers in 1823 from County Cork on the Vessel Hebe. This Michael Horan was settled in Ramsay Township, near Pakenham. This Michael Horan worked on the canal. James Horan son of Michael, who apparently came after the rest of the family, may have worked on the Canal as he was in the area, He was married his first wife Mary Ann Fowler in Perth, Lanark County in 1826.*
- 5. The land petition of Mary Minnock in 1824 does not state that her husband died on a Government project and that the grant was some sort of indemnity.*
- 6. Sir Peregrine Maitland (1777-1854) was the Lieutenant-Governor of Upper Canada from 1818-1828. The letter quoted was sent in January of 1827. Ms. Heyes unbelievably changed the date by ten years. While Ms Heyes may not have been a professional historian, she had full access to the records that would have verified when Albion was settled and when the Maitlands were in Upper Canada. To quote "Professional Genealogy: A Manual for Reasearchers Writers, Editors, Lecturers, and Librarians; avoid misleading other researchers by either intentionally or carelessly distributing or publishing inaccurate information." Ms. Heyes failed in this obligation.*
- 7. Henry Shore is the name that we have been given as Honora Shore's father though unproven.*

The Horan Family

John Henry Horan was the great-grandson of James Horan and Mary Ann Fowler. His great grandfather , James Horan 1801-1885 emigrated from Ireland in the 1820's and first stopped in the Ottawa Area (Then Bytown). Later he moved from Albion Township, United Counties of York and Peel, (now Town of Caledon). In 1845 the Irish Block at Sydenham Township, Grey County opened for settlement. James moved with his family siblings, Michael Horan, John Horan and Ann Horan, (Mrs Michael Traynor) up to Sydenham Township from Albion. Sydenham Township is beside Owen Sound, Ontario.

James signed over half of his land in Sydenham Township to his son William Francis Horan in 1854. After James's death William and family emigrated to Montana.

JOHN HENRY HORAN

Joe's father, John Henry Horan, more commonly known as Jack Horan was born January 7, 1887, in Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada. Jack was about 3 years old when the family moved to Great Falls, Montana in 1890. He was the son of James T. Horan (born 22 Jan 1852, died November 1935) and Mary McCurry Horan. His paternal grandparents were William Horan (born 5/3/1827, died 1/5/1901) and Julia Donahue Horan (born 2/1839, died 1912). The family later moved to the Eden area On the Swede Bench where they made their home.

Jack married Jessie Mabel Davis 1/12/1910 in St. Ann's Cathedral in Great Falls, Montana, and ranched in the Eden community.

They had the following children:

1. Joseph John Horan, born 11/11/1910. died 10/3/1965, married Alberta L. McFarland 7/6/41;
2. Marian E. (Minnie) born June 22. 1912, married Joseph Duncan;
3. Mary Evelyn Horan (Mae), born March 28, 1915, died October 1, 1987, married (1) Paul Ramstead
(2) George (Slim) White;
4. Katherine (Katy), born February 5. 1918, married (1) Euna Ramstead (2) Joseph Cherufole;

After John Henry Horan married Jessie Davis, they settled on a homestead on Deep Creek. Their homestead house was located on a little hill above what is now known as the Johnny Hocevar Ranch. He moved the original house to another location on Spring Creek at the foot of Swede Bench hill. As more children came the house was added to, and built additional outbuildings. The children attended Roberts School, except when the snow got too deep to get to school. Jack was a friend of the artist. Charlie Russell, and wrote a book of poems called "Burnt Leather" depicting his knowledge of the old west and his experiences white riding the range and guiding in Glacier Park. Jack and Jessie moved into town. but were divorced in the late 20 or early. 30's. After working around ranches, and managing the Burnt Leather Ranch at McLeod, Jack died in Billings, Montana April 3, 1944.

James T. and Mary McCurry Horan also had the following children:
